

TO REDECORATE COURT HOUSE DURING WINTER

The Adams county commissioners, meeting Wednesday at the court house, voted to have the interior of the court house repainted and re-decorated during the coming winter months.

Corridors and nearly all offices at the court house will be repainted, with most of them receiving their first paint since the entire court house was remodeled 12 years ago. The judge's office, and the probate office, both repainted within the past few years, will not be included in the painting contract, nor will the court room itself be included.

In connection with the "beautifying" of the court house generally, the commissioners also hope to be able to have the exterior of the court house painted again next summer in order to have the county building in top shape for the 150th anniversary of the county's founding.

Open Bids Nov. 9

Sealed bids for the painting are to be opened by the commissioners at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, November 9, at their office in the court house. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a bond in the amount of 50 per cent of the amount of the contract within 20 days after the contract has been awarded, the commissioners noted.

The commissioners Wednesday also voted to have the 70 foot steel bridge over Middle creek at Weishaar's on the road from Fairfield to the Tract road repainted. The work will be done by a painter from the area on an hourly basis.

Six appeals from the assessments set on properties were heard by the commissioners Wednesday. The petitions were from Huntington, Latimore, Franklin, Reading and Menallen townships. Minor changes were made in three of the cases, while the other three assessments were sustained.

EGG CO-OP. TO BOOST STOCK BY $30,000

At a special meeting of the Adams Cooperative Egg association in the court house Wednesday evening, an increase of $30,000 was voted in the capital stock of the organization. The action boosted the association's capital stock from $11,000 to $41,000.

Of the $30,000 increase in capitalization, $20,000 will be in common stock which is available only to members of the cooperative. The other $10,000 will be in preferred stock with no membership restriction on the purchasers.

Increase in the volume of business was given by Paul S. Smith, manager, as the reason for the additional stock issue. He said the cooperative was organized in 1934 with a capitalization of $1,000. Several years later $10,000 worth of stock was issued. That amount has been continued although the volume of business has increased greatly. In 1936, Mr. Smith said, the cooperative did a $42,000 business. Last month's business alone totaled $46,000, he added.

S. Willis Musselman, Fairfield, president of the cooperative, presided at the special membership meeting and at a regular business meeting of the board of directors which followed.

The association has approximately 525 members.

Hospital Treats Three Students

Russell Charles, a member of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity at Gettysburg college, was treated at the Warner hospital for a laceration of the scalp received when he struck his head on a beam in the cellar. Edgar Hoss, of Lambda Chi Fraternity, received treatment for a fracture of his left ring finger sustained while playing football.

Roger Gouker, Littlestown R. 2, a student at Littlestown high school, was treated for an injury of his left leg received during football practice.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Lentz, Gettysburg R. 3, announce the birth of a daughter at the Warner hospital this morning.

Daughters were born Wednesday at the hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Welty, Middleburg, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fogle, Taneytown.

A son was born last Saturday at the hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slaybaugh, Biglerville R. 1.

College Freshmen Wallop Sophomores

Freshman customs at Gettysburg college were cancelled for the remainder of the college year as a result of the freshmen's victory over the sophomores in Wednesday's frosh-soph scraps. The freshmen won the tug-of-war and the sophomores declined to participate in the shoe scramble. After their victory, the freshmen rang the bell in Glatfelter Hall for a few moments.

LITTLESTOWN

VOTE TO PAINT STAIRS, ROOMS AT FIRE HALL

Littlestown Borough council at its October meeting Tuesday evening in the office of the secretary, Roger J. Keefe, voted to accept a voluntary contribution of $230 from the Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity towards renovating the two rooms and stairway of the Alpha fire hall. President Rebert informed council that the Woman's club was desirous of having the hall repaired since it is sponsoring the Girl Scouts, who use the hall as their meeting place. Renovations are to include a new fluorescent light for the rear room.

In the discussion that followed it was noted that the Community club had previously requested the Alpha fire company to contribute towards renovations, but the firemen were unwilling to contribute since it was a borough building. Council was hesitant about the repairs because money for such purpose came out of taxes. Council also expressed a hope that the firemen will reconsider their action in regards to repairs, since any alterations would benefit all concerned.

A bid of $320 from Luke K. Prymyer was accepted by council for plastering, to "Beautex" the two large rooms and stairway and to paint the woodwork of the fire hall. Council also voted to include the borough's office at an additional cost in proportion to the other cost.

Secretary Resigns

John A. Meyers, secretary to the Board of Health, tendered his resignation, due, he said, to his employment at the Keystone Cabinet company, which did not allow him the necessary time. The resignation is effective November 1, or as soon as another appointment can be made. Mr. Meyers explained that he was not a member of the board but had been appointed by it. Council then voted to accept Mr. Meyers' resignation with the understanding that he call a meeting of the Board of Health tendering his resignation to the board and instruct the board to appoint his successor.

The Street committee reported that the construction of a portion of Boyer street and the resurfacing of the other portion, including the Zerfing alley project, had been completed. The committee also reported on the grading of the crossings along West King street and that the removal of the excess ground was necessary to complete that project, and it was unanimously agreed that the necessary equipment be obtained from John S. Teeter and Sons to have the work done, together with a portion along the north side of East Myrtle street.

To Buy Stop Signs

The street commissioner will be instructed through Secretary Keefe to make the necessary patching and repairing along Charles and "M" streets. Temporary repairs were also authorized for the storm sewer on North Queen street adjacent to the borough limits on the west side.

A discussion was held in regards to placing stop signs on the alleys crossing the Zerfing alley. Secretary Keefe was authorized to purchase 12 stop signs.

President Rebert informed council that as a result of surfacing the Zerfing alley surface water failed to drain off adjacent to the D. D. Basehoar property and the alley running east from Zerfing's. It was suggested that a small patch could be placed at the intersection to eliminate the condition. The street commissioner will be instructed to make the necessary repair.

A communication received from the Alpha Fire company, requesting that council purchase 300 feet 2 1/2-inch and 250 feet 1 1/2-inch fire hose, was read. After considerable discussion the matter was tabled. A. G. Johnson, representing the Fabric Fire Hose company, spoke.

Permits Issued

Permission was granted to the Girl Scout troops to meet in the Alpha fire hall.

Water permits were issued to the following: Andy Roder, 51 Crouse Park; Charles R. Benner, 42 Prince street; and Charles J. A. Crushong, 67 Crouse Park.

LOCAL TROOP WILL FIRE IN 2-TEAM MATCH

Members of Adams county Troop A of the Pennsylvania National Guard will engage in their second rifle match Sunday afternoon with the hope that it may prove more successful than their first inter-troop match last Sunday with Troop B of Tyrone.

In that first match the local team shot a total score of 1173, or 96 less than the 1269 total of their opponents. The results of the match could not be announced until after the two teams had exchanged scores by mail. The Adams county guardsmen fired at the Carlisle army and the Tyrone troop fired at Tyrone. Both used .22 caliber rifles at 50 yards in the standing, sitting, prone and squatting positions.

Two Men Enlist

Sunday afternoon when the group meets Carlisle's troop E both teams will fire on the same range at Carlisle. Each troop is scheduled to enter ten men in the competition. The five highest scores will count as the team score.

Last week's scores were: Lt. John W. Deardorff, Jr., 252; Sgt. Jack Miller, 257; Cpl. Donald Doersom, 278; Cpl. Don W. Newman, 209, and Ret. Bradley P. Morelock, 177.

Two new men have been assigned to the troop. Lieutenant Deardorff, commanding officer, announced today. The new guardsmen are Ret. Donald E. Shriver, 26 East High street, and Ret. Charles W. Moritz, Gettysburg R. 2.

FOX WILL GIVE TWO CONCERTS

Virgil Fox, outstanding American concert organist, will present recitals here November 7 and 8, it was announced today. Both programs will be held in Christ Lutheran church at 8:45 o'clock each evening. The organist, who presented a concert here several years ago, has presented recitals in the concert halls of New York, London, Paris, Berlin, Toronto, Chicago, Los Angeles and a number of other large cities.

He made his debut as a concert organist at the age of 14 in Cincinnati. He entered Peabody conservatory and won all honors available there. He was appointed as the head of the organ department at Peabody conservatory at the age of 26.

His first postwar concert, made the week he was separated from the Army, was given in the Library of Congress. He has been soloist four times for the National Association of Organists and the American Guild of Organists, and serves as organist at the Riverside church in New York city. He served in the Army from June, 1942, to January, 1946.

Judge To Speak In Philadelphia

Judge W. C. Sheely will be a speaker Friday morning at the Pennsylvania Welfare conference being held at the Benjamin Franklin hotel in Philadelphia.

The local jurist and Robert P. Wray, deputy secretary of the Department of Public Assistance, will discuss the administration of the Mallery act, passed by the last legislature, which permits the Department of Public Assistance to continue grants for children where the children have been removed from the home of a family on assistance and placed in another home under the Child Welfare service. Currently, expenses of all children under Child Welfare in foster homes are borne by the counties which place the children. Under the new law the state will be able to provide funds for those from assistance served families.

Faces Charge Of Disorderly Conduct

Borough police at 9 o'clock Wednesday night arrested Leo Fluck, Lancaster, and committed him to jail on a disorderly conduct charge, for a hearing later today before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehoar.

Fluck was arrested at the Greyhound terminal on North Washington street, according to the police report. He was taken to the Warner hospital for treatment of head injuries before being committed to jail.

RESTORE PRIVILEGES

Francis L. Kane, Guernsey, told The Gettysburg Times today that "to correct an error in the original revocation" of the hunting privileges of Mr. Kane, the state Game Commission at a meeting on October 6 restored his hunting privileges, effective immediately. In a previous revocation notice, Mr. Kane's hunting rights had been revoked for the period from September 1, 1949, to August 31, 1951.

First Frost Today; To Be Colder Tonight

It was cold enough here this morning to blanket most of Adams county under a heavy, white frost, the first of the season, but colder temperatures are forecast for tonight.

The advice from the Philadelphia weather bureau is: "Button up your overcoat and check the anti-freeze in your car." It's going to be cold tonight with a general frost predicted.

The forecast calls for below freezing temperatures across the state tonight with a low of about 26 degrees expected.

Last night's low here was 33 degrees, the coldest so far this fall. In general, temperatures have been unseasonably warm. Nearby rural stations reported ice formed this morning.

Spook Pranks Causing Some Local Damage

Halloween pranksters did considerable damage in various parts of Gettysburg Wednesday night.

With the actual celebration of Halloween not until Saturday night, when the annual Halloween parade will be held, dozens of youngsters and older youths and girls paraded the streets Wednesday night, many in costumes.

Residents of Stevens street reported one "gang" of youths operated from an automobile, tipping over porch furniture and flower boxes.

State police have investigated complaints of Halloween depredations in various parts of the county.

In one section, youngsters broke into a vacant house, spilled paint on floors and walls and did other damage.

Nightly Patrols

Nightly patrols are being maintained by the state police to prevent damage to property.

In the borough, the annual "soaping" of windows in homes, stores and automobiles has been under way for several nights.

The usual minor pranks and throwing of corn have also been nightly occurrences, in spite of the warning of Burgess C. A. Helges that Halloween pranks were to be confined to the actual celebration of Halloween.

Many smaller youngsters in Gettysburg "made the rounds" of neighborhoods Wednesday night, in costume and masked, demanding "tricks or treats." Most homes visited were prepared for them with candy, cookies or apples.

LOADED TRUCK UPSETS

A tractor-trailer loaded with wheat was damaged this morning at 10 o'clock when it ran off the York Springs-Hanover road 1 1/2 miles south of York Springs. State police, who are investigating, said the operator was Lloyd Longenecker, 36, Lebanon, and that the vehicle, after it ran off the road, skidded down an embankment and upset in a gutter. No estimate of damage was immediately available.

FILE ESTATE BOND

An administration bond in the estate of Catherine B. Warner, late of Latimore township, has been filed with the county register and recorder by the administrators John D. Pentz and Elmer C. Wagner, both of York Springs R. D.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

Edmund Zimmerman, Elizabeth, Pa., paid a fine of $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace William L. Dentler, Cashtown, on a speeding charge, filed by state police of the Gettysburg substation.

Church Society Honors Memory Of Mrs. Margaret Himes Seebach With Memorial Edition Of Poems

"Here We Have Stars" is a 245 page cloth-bound book of the many poems written by the late Margaret R. (Himes) Seebach, sister of Miss Mary Hay Himes, Carlisle street, and daughter of the late Professor and Mrs. John A. Himes for many years prominent in the activities of Gettysburg and Gettysburg college.

The book was recently published as a memorial edition by the Women's Missionary Society of the United Lutheran Church and dedicated "in loving tribute" to Margaret R. Seebach, who was editor of the Lutheran Woman's Work for twenty years and "a life-long contributor to every phase of the Society's activities."

"Spiritual Insight" "As individuals we are richer because her brilliant mind and deep spiritual insight, united with an unusual talent for literary expression, were all used unreservedly for the glory of God and the advancement of His Kingdom," the memorial declares.

Mrs. Seebach died October 20, 1948, at her home in Merion, Pa. Long active in Lutheran work Mrs. Seebach occupied her husband's pulpit in Philadelphia for several months while he was traveling with the Sherwood Eddy group abroad. She received an Litt. D. honorary degree from Carthage college, Carthage, Ill., and Gettysburg college.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Horace Hess Waybright, the former Miss Evelyn Romaine Hikes of Gardners, is shown below. She and Mr. Waybright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Waybright, Gettysburg R. D., were married Sunday afternoon in Upper Merion Lutheran church. They are on a week's wedding trip through the South.

MRS. KEPNER, 69, DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Mary Katherine Kepner, 69, wife of William Kepner, Fairfield R. 1, died suddenly Wednesday evening at 10:15 o'clock at her home. Death occurred before the arrival of Dr. Ira M. Henderson, who was summoned.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, investigated and attributed death to acute dilatation of the heart.

Mrs. Kepner was a daughter of the late John Calvin and Mary Agnes (Eyer) Sites. She was a member of the Mt. Hope Evangelical United Brethren church.

In addition to her husband she is survived by three children, Mrs. Howard Monaghan, New Cumberland; Mrs. Allen Currens, and Carl Kepner, both of Fairfield R. 1; 17 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Harry Lightner, Fairfield R. 1, and Mrs. Harry Kump, Gettysburg, and one brother, Charles Sites, Fairfield R. 1.

Funeral services Sunday at 10:30 a. m. from the Mt. Hope church conducted by the Rev. Amos Funk. Interment in Fairfield Union cemetery. Friends may call at the late home Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Calls Firemen To Help Spook Parade

Fire Chief James A. Aumen today requested members of the Gettysburg fire company to report at the engine house Saturday night at 6 o'clock in uniform, to assist with the Halloween parade.

At least 40 members of the fire company will be needed to assist in the parade and help police the streets along the line of march, from the Meade school to the high school, Aumen said.

Driver Charged After Collision

Damage totaled $600 this morning at 7:40 o'clock when a truck and car collided at the York Springs intersection.

State police, who investigated, said that Albert L. Ritter, 41, Baltimore, driving a panel truck north on the Hanover-York Springs road, halted at the stop sign and then pulled across the Gettysburg-Harrisburg road. His truck struck the rear of a car driven by Arlene Kennedy, York Springs R. 2, a teacher at Mechanicsburg, who was en route to school. The force of the collision knocked Mrs. Kennedy off the seat and she lost control of her car, which struck a culvert.

Damage to the Kennedy car was listed as $450 and damage to the Ritter truck was put at $150. Ritter paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice of the Peace Walter Wolf on a charge of failing to yield the right of way.

MISSING MAN RETURNS

Albert McCann, 78, of East Berlin R. 1, reported earlier this week as missing from home since October 17, returned Wednesday, state police of the Gettysburg substation said they had been informed.

PLAN TO MARRY

VETERANS PLAN "GET OUT VOTE" ELECTION DAY

Gettysburg's Veterans of Foreign Wars, meeting Wednesday evening at the post home on Carlisle street, completed plans to "get out the vote" on election day, November 8.

Robert Deardorff, bonus committee chairman for the local post, secured the names of a number of volunteers to drive cars or work at the polls handing out literature urging voters to cast their ballot for amendment 1-A, the soldier bonus bill.

According to the plans outlined at the meeting, the VFW members, working with the local American Legion post, will be available to drive voters to polling places to cast their votes.

Those who volunteered to work include: Charles L. Fair, Jr., John G. Rummel, Francis Wisotzky, Sebastian Hafer, Charles Dillman, Jr., Robert Little, Charles D. Weaver, Frederick Hubbard, William C. Becker, Jack Berger, George Fissel and Chairman Deardorff.

Seek More Volunteers

Other members of the post will be asked to join in the drive to "get out the vote," Deardorff said.

He added the hope that sufficient veterans will be available to take care of voters in outlying districts. A meeting of bonus chairman and committee members from veterans' organizations in the county will be held at the local VFW post home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock to enlist other veterans in the county to provide cars on election day.

Five new members were accepted into the local post Wednesday night. They are: John Cole, Biglerville star route; Paul Herrick, Orrtanna R. 1; Glenn Kepner, 446 Baltimore street; David Dolly, 132 Chambersburg street, and Frank Murray, Gettysburg R. 4. Bernard Partridge won the door prize at the meeting.

COUPLE WEDS ON WEDNESDAY

Miss Jane Elizabeth Humer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Humer, New Oxford, became the bride of Bernard Joseph Brashers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen Brashers, New Oxford, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The single ring ceremony was performed in immaculate Conception church, New Oxford, by the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Robert D. Hartnett.

The bride wore a brown coat suit and brown accessories with a corsage of Tailsman roses. Her attendant, Mrs. Fred G. Klunk, New Oxford, wore a pink coat suit with a yellow rosebud corsage. Fred G. Klunk was best man.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. Upon their return they will reside on Lincolnway east, New Oxford. A reception is to be held upon their return.

A veteran of World War II, during which he served in the Marine corps, the bridegroom was wounded during the fight on Guadalcanal. He is a graduate of New Oxford high school and is employed as day manager at the Park hotel, New Oxford.

The bride is a graduate of New Oxford high school and is a registered nurse, employed at Mont Alto.

Helen Heintzelman, Earl Myers Marry

Helen C. Heintzelman, daughter of the late J. C. Weirman and Mrs. Weirman, 206 York street, and Earl Myers, son of Harry L. Myers and the late Anna Myers of Fairfield, were married at noon today at Elias Lutheran church, Emmitsburg.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of the church. There were no attendants. The bride wore dusty rose with gray and black accessories. A necklace of rhinestones was a gift of the bridegroom. She also wore a corsage of white roses.

The wedding took place on the 51st wedding anniversary of Mrs. Myers' mother, Mrs. Weirman. Following the ceremony, the couple left on a wedding trip of unannounced destination.

PACK 73 HOLDS PARTY AFTER BUSINESS MEET

Community Cub Pack No. 73 held a monthly business session Wednesday night at the Presbyterian church, followed by a Halloween party. Donald Warrenfeltz, new cubmaster, presided at the business meeting. Awards were presented to several members of the pack.

Jack Crist received the wolf badge; wolf gold arrows were presented to Roger and Sydney Steiner; a wolf silver arrow was presented to Charles Lightner; David Kime became a bear cub and David Gifford a lion cub; a lion gold arrow was presented to Billy Swisher, who also was awarded the Webelos badge with Billy Woods and Ronald Collins.

Past Cubmaster William R. Swisher presented the awards, assisted by the parents of some of the cubs.

Reports Given

The business of the evening included reports from den mothers and members of pack committees who attended a recent pow-wow at York on new games and crafts to be taught on the cubs.

Entertainment was furnished by members of the three dens of the pack. Den 1, led by Mrs. Ray J. Kitzmiller, presented "musical" selections in vocal chorus and comb and harmonica bands. The den chief, William Bream, played the piano accompaniments. Den 2, with Mrs. Swisher in charge gave "Seem Things at Night" in monologue. Mrs. E. Donald Scott, den mother of Den 3, explained a "smells" program for all cubs. They were taken into a darkened room and each given "sniffs" of 10 odors of vegetables and spices, later being asked to name the "smells." About a dozen of the boys were able to remember seven.

Mrs. Scott's den also made "Halloween Witch" favors for the cubs present. Games were played, and refreshments of cider and gingerbread served. Forty cubs and about 20 parents attended the meeting and party.

FIRE DAMAGES GOODYEAR HOME

Several hundred dollars damage was done at noon today to the home owned by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Rocky at Goodyear and tenanted by Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Bender. The fire is reported to have started in an out kitchen where the Benders' young son, Kenneth, was playing with matches. Flames spread rapidly to the roof.

The Bendersville, Aspers and Mt. Holly Springs fire companies responded to summonses and quickly brought the flames under control. Water was supplied to booster tanks from a nearby spring.

A quantity of furniture was damaged by water while some was carried from the home.

The loss is said to have been covered by insurance.

Halloween Party Planned At Eagles

The Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold its annual Halloween party and dance at the lodge rooms on Chambersburg street Saturday night.

Dancing will be from 8:30 to 1 o'clock, with music furnished by the Eagles' orchestra of York. Dress will be optional, but many will wear Halloween costumes.

NOT OPEN TO PUBLIC

The home products demonstration by Mrs. Mary Bowers, Hanover, to be sponsored by the Epsilon Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority on November 8 at 8 p. m., at the Shetter house is not open to the public as previously reported. However, members may be accompanied by as many guests as they wish.

HOLMAN L. SELL NEW HEAD FOR 'AG' COMMITTEE

Holman L. Sell, Littlestown, was elected chairman of the Adams County Production and Marketing Administration County and Community committee Wednesday evening at a meeting held in the offices of the organization on North Washington street.

The title, Production and Marketing Administration County and Community committee, is the new name for the Adams County Agricultural Conservation Association, which for years has carried on the task of carrying out the USDA Production and Marketing Administration program in the county.

Roy A. Weaver, Gettysburg R. 4, was named vice chairman; D. H. Neely, Fairfield, regular member; M. T. Walter, Biglerville R. 1, first alternate and S. R. Kohler, New Oxford, second alternate. Walter acted as chairman of the committee during the past year.

The election was carried out by the delegates named by the six districts in the county: D. H. Neely, Fairfield; Irvin Kindig, Littlestown; Ambrose Myers, Gettysburg R. 5; C. P. Cashman, New Oxford; R. Bruce Wetzel, Biglerville, and John W. Black, Gettysburg R. 3. Harry Peters, Chambersburg, field man for the production and marketing administration in this area, served as chairman for the meeting of delegates to elect the county committee.

NATIONALISTS CLAIM 20,000 REDS WIPED OUT

Chungking, Oct. 27 (AP)—Chinese Nationalists today trumpeted news of their biggest military victory since the Communists crossed the Yangtze in April.

They said government forces had wiped out fully 20,000 Red invaders of Chingmen Island northeast of Communist-held Amoy on the south central coast. And 4,000 others were taken prisoner, including Gen. Chu Shao-ching.

Neutral sources who have heard sweeping Nationalist claims before, granted that some sort of victory had occurred, although possibly not on the scale portrayed.

Chingmen is important as a useful jumping off base for any Communist attempt to storm the Nationalist island fortress of Formosa, about 20 miles to the east.

Another development indicated the government meant business in recent talk of getting more men and more supplies for armies facing a Communist drive into southwest China.

The Nationalists approached the Burmese government on the question of re-opening the famed Burma Road, at one time China's main supply route during the war against Japan. The Reds have seized or neutralized coastal ports all the way from Canton to Shanghai.

STOCKS LEVEL OFF

New York, Oct. 27 (AP)—The stock market quickly leveled off today after strong opening demand lifted the price level to a new 1949 high. In broad and active trading, key issues advanced fractions to an extreme of more than a point immediately after the opening bell. Opposition soon developed and in many cases the initial gains were trimmed.

DEATHS

Pius Samuel Alwine

Pius Samuel Alwine, 75, Hanover, died suddenly Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, from a heart condition. He had been in his usual health up until the time he was stricken. The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breighner. His wife, Jennie Markle Alwine, preceded him in death on January 9, 1934. He was a retired cigar maker and a member of St. Joseph's Catholic church. He was also a member of the Eagles and Home Association at McSherrystown.

He is survived by the following children: Bryan W. York; Mrs. Alton Panus, with whom he made his home; Mrs. Charles Ford, 237 West Middle street; John, Cyril J., Charles L., all of Hanover; and 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He is also survived by one step brother, Ralph Copeman, Abbotstown. Funeral services Friday with short rites at 8:30 a. m. at the William A. Feiser Funeral home, Hanover, followed by a high mass of requiem at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The Rev. Robert Gribbin will be the celebrant. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery, McSherrystown. Friends may call at the funeral home this evening. Prayers will be said at 8:30 p. m.

NAVY TO DELIVER A-BOMB BY SUB

Pearl Harbor, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Navy will show Nov. 7 how atomic bombs can be delivered by submarines.

It will be done by launching 15,000-pound guided missiles—"loons," which could carry atomic warheads—from the standard fleet type submarines Tusk and Carbonero.

Pacific fleet headquarters said the "loons" 30-foot-long improvement on the wartime German buzz bomb, will be fired by the two undersea craft off Hawaii. The missiles, electronically guided by the subs, have a range of 100 to 200 miles.

The demonstration will be "a very significant step in the exploitation of sea power," said Cmdr. John S. McCain, Jr., who has charge of submarine guided missile development. He added:

"The submarine, with guided missiles, has become a siege bombardment weapon and can be used to deliver atom bombs. The whole idea of using submarines to launch guided missiles is a long step toward push-button warfare."

The navy said submarines proved in the Hawaiian war games conducted yesterday that they can carry huge high-speed, long-range guided missiles across oceans in normal undersea operations.

Theodore Low Buried

Funeral services were held at the Allison funeral home, Fairfield, Wednesday afternoon for Theodore A. Low, 64, who died at his home, Fairfield R. 1, Sunday evening. The Rev. Dr. Norman Wolf officiated. Interment in Fairfield Union cemetery.

Mrs. Mary J. Bosserman

Mrs. Mary J. Bosserman, widow of the late I. Clayton Bosserman of Dover R. 3, died at 11:30 p. m. Tuesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lavina Raffensberger, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Bosserman had been living in York. Besides her sister she leaves: one son, Claude W. Bosserman, Jr.; two brothers, J. W. Criswell, Stroudsburg, Pa., and E. K. Criswell, East Berlin R. 1; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Pater funeral home, York. Rev. C. Carroll Bailey, of St. Paul's EUB church, will officiate. Interment in Greenmount cemetery.

HUSBAND HELD IN MYSTERY DEATH

Erie, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—The estranged husband of a woman factory worker was held by police today in the mysterious death of her roomer from a crushed head.

District Attorney Damian McLaughlin said George Burke, 40, is being questioned in the death of Carl Wagner, 34-year old amputee World War II veteran, who roomed and boarded with Mrs. Irene Burke in the Burke home in nearby Nicholson Heights.

Wagner died in Hamot hospital about an hour after Mrs. Burke said she found him unconscious on the floor of his room when she returned from work yesterday.

McLaughlin said Burke, employee of the Erie Forge and Steel company, left his home and roomed elsewhere after the couple and Wagner were involved in a heated

BUFFALO AGOG OVER SHOW IN SKY WEDNESDAY

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 27 (AP)—A mysterious "something" in the sky had a good many Buffalo residents agog today.

Numerous sky gazers saw it last night. Most agreed it gave off a bright light, but beyond that it was hard to find two descriptions that agreed.

George Davis, Buffalo Science Museum astronomer, said it might have been a shower of meteors, but others called it "a big spot of blue," "A green ball of fire" and "An immense skyrocket." Whatever it was, it was the third sky phenomenon reported this month.

Other Displays

On October 14 residents in northern Ontario, Toronto and Buffalo reported seeing "a blinding, bluish white blaze of light" and/or "a big ball of fire with a long tail." Later a Canadian authority said they probably saw a fireball or a meteor, a fireball being a larger than usual meteor.

Last Monday residents of Hymers, Ont., reported they saw a huge streak of fire race through the sky, perform a loop and disappear.

Several persons thought the lights originated near the Bell Aircraft plant. The Buffalo Courier-Express quoted a Bell official as saying "some tests" were under way there last night.

A Bell spokesman said one of the firm's engineers reported seeing what looked like "a blue wing top of an airplane, but that it was traveling too fast through the sky to have been attached to a plane."

May Have Been "Fireball"

In New York, Robert Coles, associate curator of the Hayden Planetarium, said he believed that from the descriptions the phenomenon was a low-flying meteor, sometimes called a fireball.

"Such phenomena may sometimes light up the whole countryside," he said. "Sometimes the after effect will last for two or three minutes."

He added that there are usually more meteors visible in the fall than at other seasons.

A Bell spokesman said one of the firm's engineers reported seeing what looked like "a blue wing top of an airplane, but that it was traveling too fast through the sky to have been attached to a plane."

300 AT CHURCH MEETING HERE

Approximately 300 persons attended the fall conference of Mercersburg Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed church Tuesday evening at Trinity Reformed church.

The president, the Rev. Irvin Raubenhold, York, presided at the session and addressed the group. The devotional period was in charge of the Rev. James Moyer, Mercersburg, vice president of the synod. The Rev. Dr. Edward O. Keen, York, treasurer, gave a resume of the financial standing of the synod and stated that 80 per cent of the apportionment had been paid to date, which is a higher percentage than for the same time last year.

The speaker for the evening was the Rev. Dr. Silas P. Bittner, Philadelphia executive secretary of the Board of Pensions and Relief. He spoke of the work of the Evangelical and Reformed church in regards to national and international missions. He also spoke concerning salaries of ministers in the synod and stated that an increase for all ministers should be forthcoming. A discussion period followed the session. The pastor of the host church, the Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, is a past president of the synod.

Keen eyes and kindly heart! What work awaits
Your coming in the City of Great Peace?
Shall all your gifts be spent, your labors cease,
Passing within its opalescent gates?
No longer shall you sit, like judging fates,

Two strikes to test powers of President

Washington, Oct. 27 (AP)—The steel and coal strikes, if they last long enough, could lead to a showdown on the issue of whether the President has "inherent powers"—apart from any law—to handle major labor disputes.

That issue, full of political implications, was argued bitterly in Congress earlier this year when foes of the Taft-Hartley law were trying futilely to get it repealed.

Now the issue is underscored again by the possibility that President Truman may intervene in an effort to get the steel and coal workers back on the job. A White House conference of the disputants might be one early way of intervention.

Pledged To Repeal

A more drastic course open to the President would be to declare a national emergency and thus start a procedure that could lead, in one or both of the disputes, to Taft-Hartley injunctions ordering the strikers to resume work for at least 80 days.

Mr. Truman, however, is pledged to repeal of the Taft-Hartley act, and foes of the law feel he would be reluctant to resort to it in the present situation.

It was against that background of political pledges and labor's hatred of the law that the administration proposed last January to put on the books a new measure which did not provide for injunctions. The bill got nowhere.

When Taft-Hartley backers contended the non-injunction administration plan would leave the country defenseless against national emergency strikes, such as coal and steel disputes that ran on to the point of crisis, the "inherent powers" argument came into the picture.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Now They're Sitting Pretty

Squint Miller, who's working as a telephone lineman, was telling me about some birds that got into a fight with his company.

Seems a couple of woodpeckers set up housekeeping in a telephone pole. Nobody minded them living there, but they kept pecking at the wires—causing one short circuit after another.

Finally, the telephone people—who had nothing personal against the birds—just stopped up the hole where they lived. But they kept coming back. At last, the company donated that pole to the woodpeckers and set up a brand-new one for their own use!

From where I sit, we'd all be better off if we were as tolerant with our own kind as that telephone outfit was with the woodpeckers. Let's consider the other fellow's point of view—whether it's his right to live where he wants, or to enjoy a friendly glass of temperate beer or ale when and if he pleases.

Warriors Must Down Hershey Here Friday Night To Stay In South Penn Title Picture

There should be no need for coaches George Forney and Howard Lemaker to make an effort to have Gettysburg High Warriors "up" for their South Penn football conference game here Friday evening with Hershey.

The Warriors MUST win this one well as the game here November with Mechanicsburg to stay in the running for the conference title. There is little likelihood the Warriors will not be raring to go against opponents.

If good weather prevails a large crowd is certain to be on hand for the contest. The Hershey High band will head a delegation of invading fans.

Hershey cannot be taken lightly. The Trojans have shown time and again this season they are capable of some fine football. Coach Jerry Beck and his outfit are confident they can knock the Warriors out of the running and come here prepared for their best efforts.

Hershey's Record
The Trojans opened their season with successive wins over Hummelstown 6-0, Shippensburg 20-0 and Layman 21-0 before absorbing a 14 shellacking at the hands of Mechanicsburg. Chambersburg won over Hershey 25-6 and then the Trojans upset Waynesboro 14-6. Last week the Frocks-men bowed to Carlisle 7-0 after a bitter battle.

Leading ground gainers for Hershey this season have been Basil Heistand, both hard running backs.

A lot of rough work scheduled for this week was eliminated by Coach Forney due to minor injuries and losses received in last week's games. However, all of the players should be ready for action.

Many fans are apprehensive the Warriors may be too overconfident after a week after showing such splendid form last week but with so much at stake it is highly improbable the Warriors will be victims of a let-down.

Important Games
Three other league contests scheduled for Friday night will play important roles in determining the South Penn title.

Chambersburg, defending champs, will be host to Waynesboro. The outcome of the Tornado in the last few weeks would indicate the extent of strength of the team is at the beginning to make itself felt. The Trojans may be in for a busy evening.

Mechanicsburg, unbeaten this season and tied only by Waynesboro, should experience little trouble in Shippensburg on the Wildcat field.

The up and coming Carlisle team rated at least a touchdown better than Hanover who will be played at Hanover.

Fights Last Night
New York (St. Nicholas Arena)—Lester, 191, New York, knocked out Walter Hafer, 199, Louisville, Ky., 9.

Philadelphia — Harold Johnson, Philadelphia, outpointed Jimmy Lins, 180, Cleveland, 10.

Oakland, Calif.—Mario Trigo, 139, Angeles, and Chief Whitewater, Oakland, drew 10. (Top regular on Ezzard Charles-Billy Smith fight on card.)

Kron, Ohio — Ronnie Delaney, on, knocked out Tommy Bell, 160, New York, 10. (Eds: Weltweit, exact weights not available).

Las Vegas, Scotland—Manuel Ortiz, El Centro, Calif., outpointed Ed Paterson, 124, Scotland, 10 (11th).

Babe Zaharias To Be Golf Club Pro

Chicago, Oct. 27 (AP)—Babe Zaharias has become the first woman to fill a man's shoes as head professional of a golf club.

She did it for a minimum of $20,000 per year, a private airplane, and room for George in the clubhouse's private quarters.

Whether George, her 300-pound, ex-wrestler husband, will forsake his boxing and wrestling promotions in Denver, Colo., to climb into her lap of luxury, is not known. Anyway, there's space for him at swanky Skyrcrest Country club, a 36-hole layout where Babe takes over as pro Feb. 1, 1950, and will live.

She succeeds affable Jerry Glynn, who taught her most of what she knows about golf a decade ago.

NITTANY LIONS LACK RESERVES

State College, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—The once over-loaded Penn State Nittany Lions have at last run out of football material.

Penn State's football team, once the terror of the east, has lost three decisive decisions this season to Villanova, Army and Michigan State—as many as in the last three years combined.

"The boys are playing their hearts out but after all, our first team is mainly second and third stringers of 1947-48," new Head Coach Joe Bedenk explained. "As a whole, they're almost as good as last year's starters but the lack of reserves is the big difference."

Bedenk took over last spring from the veteran Bob Higgins, who led the Lions to 17 games without a loss, a Cotton Bowl bid and the Lambert trophy, symbolic of eastern supremacy, in his last two years.

The "farming out" of freshmen was also listed as an important item in the grid power's decline. First-year men are scattered throughout Pennsylvania in smaller colleges and reach the main campus here only in their sophomore year.

"That's kept many promising candidates away from State," Bedenk said. "Some other coaches say I'm lucky to have a farm system," he added. "They should be so lucky."

Only fullback Francis Rogel, blocking back Chuck Drazonovich and his brother Joe at guard, and Bedenk's co-captains, end Bob Hicks and tackle Negley Norton, returned this season from the Cotton Bowl starters.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27 (AP)—Harold Johnson is ready to move in toward boxing's big money.

The 21-year-old Philadelphia negro served notice that he is a worthy opponent for any of the light heavyweights and many of the big boys last night. The notice was in the form of a 10-round decision over veteran Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland before a crowd of 4,445 at Convention Hall.

Call letters of amateur radio stations always include a number. That is to identify the district in which they are located.

ORDER SEWAGE PLANTS
Harrisburg, Oct. 27 (AP)—Phoenixville and Spring City, both in Chester county, were ordered today to build sewage treatment works in line with the state's clean stream program.

The Sanitary Water Board issued the orders to the two communities, both along the Schuylkill river. They were directed to have the sewage systems in operation by January 1, 1951.

BULLETS HELP ROTARY MAKE $6,000 PROFIT ON BOWL GAME

Not only did Gettysburg college's football machine prove that it is a natural gridiron attraction but, with Lebanon Valley, it paved the way for the financial success, the best in three contests, of the 1949 Chocolate Bowl game at the Hershey stadium.

A financial report of this year's Chocolate Bowl game, published by the Harrisburg Rotary club, sponsor of the game, reveals that the Rotary club netted more than $6,000 for the benefit of boys and girls in the Harrisburg area, particularly for scouting, crippled children, scholarships, and other beneficial purposes.

In the two previous Chocolate Bowl games, Penn State vs Washington State and Temple vs West Virginia, there was little or no profit to the Rotary club's charity foundation.

The success of this year's game, financially and otherwise, has brought a clamor from grid fans for an invitation to Gettysburg college to participate in next year's contest. Some have suggested that Bucknell be selected as the Bullets' opponents.

Attorney Ralph Evans, Harrisburg, is chairman of the football game committee and submitted the financial report.

Since it was founded two years ago to handle the net profits of a regularly scheduled football game between Penn State and Washington State, the Rotary Foundation has become the repository of all funds realized on Harrisburg Rotary activities. In addition to the administrative of all expenditures of the club for charitable, educational and civic purposes, the foundation investigates and screens all money-raising projects submitted for club adoption.

The preliminary report of Albert L. Allen, financial chairman for the 1949 benefit bowl game, follows:

Income
Ticket sales less federal tax $11,265.41
Other income, including programs 5,593.63

Littlestown high school's football team, co-champions of the league last year, took over undisputed possession of first place again in the Little Six conference Wednesday evening by walloping Stewartstown 32-0 under the lights at Littlestown.

Clay Evans' lads can clinch the title on November 5 by winning at Dallastown in the closing game of the season. Dallastown, also unbeaten, plays at New Freedom on Saturday.

The Thunderbolts scored in the first period against Stewartstown, Rice firing a 20-yard pass to Marshman in the end zone. Shanebrook's kick for the point failed.

Three TDs resulted in the second quarter. After recovering a fumble on Stewartstown's 2-yard mark, Littlestown scored when Feaser went over on a quarterback sneak. Feaser booted the point.

Another fumble on the 5-yard mark by Stewartstown was recovered by Littlestown and on the first play Crouse circled left end to tally Rice's kick for the point was no good.

The third touchdown of the period was set up on a 12-yard pass, Shanebrook to Marshman, the latter rating 30 yards to the opponents' 3-yard stripe. Crouse then tallied on a handoff from Shanebrook and Marshman added the point on a placement.

Shanebrook tossed a 20-yard pass to Bish in the end zone for the final Thunderbolt tally in the third period. Shanebrook's boot for the point failed.

Shanebrook played an outstanding game as a substitute on both the offensive and defense.

Littlestown recorded five first downs while Stewartstown made but one. Through the air the Bolts connected on four of five while Stewartstown was unsuccessful in all six of its aeriels.

SHOOTING MATCH
The York Springs Rod and Gun club is planning a target and flyer shoot Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, officials of the club announced today.

The feature event will be a 50 clay target match. In addition to the clay target shooting several hundred live birds will be released for shoots. Prizes will be in cash, Woolrich clothes and turkeys.

HALT PROBE ON SPORTS 'VIDEO'
Washington, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Justice Department said today it has halted its anti-trust inquiry into the broadcasting and televising of major league baseball games.

New rules have been adopted by the leagues and the department is going to sit back for a while and see how they work out.

The investigation was started to determine whether the leagues had put "unreasonable restraints" on broadcasting and televising of games.

The chief complaint centered on a rule that gave a major league club the power to block broadcasts in their home territories of games played by other clubs. Home territories were measured as 50 miles from the ball park.

The department said it hopes the new rules will "eliminate past restrictive practices and will greatly broaden the opportunity for radio and television stations to carry games of major league clubs in territories outside their respective home territories."

The World Series games this year were played under the revised rules so that at least one station serving every important area in the country could be reached.

Robert Spears, plunging fullback for Yale, is the son of Clarence (Doc) Spears, former football coach at Wisconsin, Minnesota, Oregon and West Virginia.

BULLETS AMONG GRID CHOICES FOR WEEK-END

Philadelphia, Oct. 27 (AP)—Sobored by our most wretched week in three years of forecasting Pennsylvania football games, we turn our attention to week number six highlighted by the big game between Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania.

Upsets and long shot guesses that backfired gave us a mark of 18 right, 13 wrong and one tie last week for 581. That cut the seasonal average to .709 on 105 correct choices, 43 bad ones and 10 ties.

Pittsburgh at Pennsylvania: Despite Pitt's overwhelming defeat by Indiana, the Panthers are a very good ball club. But while Pitt has failed to improve over early season showings, Penn has been getting better every week. This corner looks for a tight, low scoring game and a narrow victory for Penn.

First View
Football was a little different and a touchdown looked big in those one-platoon days. It wasn't until the next fall that Knute Rockne conceived the idea of starting his "shock troops" and playing them through the first quarter. But Princeton didn't have a good team that year and Notre Dame, fresh from a victory over Army, obviously did. You didn't know how good until you saw them in action. And you still remember how cleanly little Harry Stuhldreher could flatten an opposing end with a rolling block and the wisdom of his signal calling. And how slender Elmer Layden seemed to slip through holes in the line without being touched. Those four touchdowns were maybe a little more than you had anticipated, but it wasn't entirely a lost afternoon. On one occasion the Princeton line managed to shove the "Ramblers" back and block a punt for a safety. The 25-2 count indicated your guys had at least done something to uphold the fading prestige of the big three.

AS OF NOW
You'd hardly take those four guys for a quartet of ex-football players now, though plumpish, good humored Jim Crowley and Don Miller look big enough. Compared to today's behemoths, you'd think stubby, balding Stuhldreher must

Gannon To Lose
Gannon at Slippery Rock: Gannon is the surprise package of the state's football teams, having moved through three games without so much as a point being registered against it. Slippery Rock should prove Gannon's match, particularly in the line. A feeble vote for S.R.

Bloomburg at Kutztown: Kutztown's upstart eleven, unbeaten and once tied in five starts, will get its come-uppance Saturday from the defending teacher college champs. By two touchdowns, Bloomburg.

Bucknell at Buffalo: A game like this is better than a shot of adrenalin. A bagful of votes for Bucknell. Temple at Michigan State: Temple has moved bitherly through four straight victories. That's all, brother! Easy for Michigan State.

St. Vincent at St. Francis (Sunday): St. Vincent, a good choice for a bowl bid come January, rambles along on its unbeaten path against a better-than-fair St. Francis team. Another for St. Vincent.

Junata at Haverford: If Mike Dvornar stays out of fist fights this should be easy for Junata. On second thought, it shouldn't be too tough even without him. Junata.

Syracuse at Penn State: Syracuse was slaughtered a week ago by Fordham. Penn State will catch the orange on the rebound, but how high can you bounce? Penn State.

St. Louis at Duquesne: This one makes it three and three for Duquesne.

Millersville at West Chester: No problem here for unseasoned, untied West Chester.

Other Selections
Also playing:
Friday
Lebanon Valley over Albright, Lafayette over George Washington.

Saturday
Dickinson over Allegheny, Mansfield over Alliance, California over Shippensburg, Carnegie Tech over Washington and Jefferson, Clarion over Indiana, Delaware over Muhlenberg, Drexel over Washington college, East Stroudsburg over Rider, Edinboro over Brockport, Franklin and Marshall over Swarthmore, Geneva over Westminster, Gettysburg over Johns Hopkins, Grove City over Thiel, Lehigh over New York university, Lock Haven over Ithaca, Wilkes over Lycoming, Moravian over Ursula, Potomac over National Agricultural, P.M.C. over Susquehanna, Boston university over Scranton, Wagner over Ursinus, Waynesburg over West Virginia Wesleyan.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
IN PURSUIT OF PLEASURE

I wonder if we are not all of us in hot pursuit after that illusive thing which we speak of as pleasure. Even the hardest work has hidden within it that nugget of gold which we may well call pleasure. If it never were there, how many of us would keep on in our search? I wonder.

Even the birds are in search for this pleasure. You see them, as well as animals, playing among themselves. Enjoyment is theirs as well as ours. If we had no pleasure in our work that work would soon deteriorate and our morale would easily fade. You can always pick out the efficient worker by the look upon his face. If he is getting pleasure out of what he is doing, he concentrates and wastes no time. He gets the thing done — and that gives him pleasure.

Mothers give to their children all the strength that they have, and are happy, because they are contributing something that is going to flower within those children in future years, and then there will ripen a double pleasure for those mothers.

Just to live for pleasure alone, and nothing else, is to defeat life's full purpose. Our pleasures should be the cement that binds our work, our achievements, and our benefactions. When we get pleasure out of what we do, we don't mind the lame back, or the long hours spent in perfecting some phase of art, or some extremely difficult task.

If we give pleasure to someone else that pleasure is reacting. It comes back. You never lose in giving it. We even live more for pleasure than we suspect. The fact creeps in upon us. It is fortunate that it does. The sweep of life is thus enlarged. We have a garden, flowers, and beautiful pictures in our homes, because they give us pleasure. Enjoyment becomes a habit. A very valuable one.

I watched a World's Series baseball game recently. Over 70,000 people looked on. It was a dramatic and inspiring sight. There was that crowd to get pleasure from the skill and perfection of two teams each fighting its way to a clean victory! Just pleasure, but an enriching one.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Add Something to Life."

THE CHANGING MAN

We were chatting, and he said: "When it's time to go to bed, I am certain, as I settle to repose, I am not the self-same man. That I was when day began. But richer than, or poorer than I rose."

"I grow richer, day by day. Not in money, let me say, But a merry jest I hadn't heard before. Or perhaps I've made a friend On whose trust I can depend. Or it may be I have learned a little more."

"In many ways and strange I am certain that I change With everything that happens or I do. Something lost or something Every day is an adventure that is new."

Hoover Lauds Thomas Edison: Dearborn, Mich., Oct. 22 (AP)—Joining the nation in the celebration of the golden jubilee of Thomas A. Edison's invention of the incandescent light, President Hoover declared Monday night that the scientists and inventors "are amongst our most priceless national possessions."

The president spoke at a dinner in Mr. Edison's honor and marking also the dedication of the Edison Institute of Technology, the gift of Henry Ford.

Harvesting of County Apples Is Near End: Harvest of the apple crop is just about completed. The crop is between 40 and 50 per cent of normal this year, and it is expected that more than 1,000 carloads of apples will be shipped from Adams county this fall. Last year 1,026 carloads were sent out.

The fruit is reported to be of exceptionally fine color this year, due to the dry weather and cool nights. The apples are of average size and better than average quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hand and children, Bobby, Betty and Harold, have returned to their home in Tower City after spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Snyder.

PITTSBURGH BUSINESS IS SUFFERING

Pittsburgh, Oct. 27 (AP)—The coal and steel strikes have cast a depressing shadow across Pittsburgh's retail stores.

Business in the city is 30 to 35 per cent below a year ago. Even if the strike should end tomorrow, retailers say, effects of the shutdowns would last well into the Christmas shopping season.

Almost all lines of merchandise have felt the loss of steel mill and mine payrolls. Retail employment, normally on the increase at this time of year, has been hit hard. Many clerks have been cut back to a 30-hour week.

Figures from the Third Federal Reserve bank in Cleveland reveal that business in the city's six big department stores has slumped 30.1 per cent compared to a year ago. It has shown a steady decline since mid-summer.

"Every week the strike continues will result in an additional five per cent drop," several retail executives said today. "Business gets worse as the strike goes on."

Big items—furniture and appliances—have been especially hard-hit. But television sales, though reported down, are continuing at a fairly good rate.

Coal company-owned stores report a huge drop in business since the start of the six-week-old coal strike. Sales at the Champion store of Pittsburgh coal company's Westlake mine near Canonsburg have slumped 40 per cent, store manager Frank Stry reported.

INQUIRER FOR TWO DEMOCRATS

Philadelphia, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Philadelphia Inquirer called today for election of two Democratic candidates to county offices.

The newspaper's views were disclosed in a page one editorial which said: "It is essential, if Philadelphia is to be given the equitable and impartial kind of administration they are entitled to, that no one political organization be permitted to maintain a monopoly on public office."

The Inquirer lists itself as politically independent. Pennsylvania political leaders of both parties long have regarded the morning newspaper as a staunch supporter of the Republican views. Politicians in some sections of the state have heard reports that Walter L. Annenberg, Inquirer publisher, may be a candidate next year for the Republican nomination for governor.

The announcement of support for Democratic candidates started many Philadelphians who had been rocking along with only mild interest in a relatively minor local election.

Four county offices—treasurer, controller, register of wills and coroner—are at stake in the November 8 election. Republican and Democratic candidates have been waging a street-corner campaign, the Democrats emphasizing recent scandals in the city government, the Republicans countering with charges that Democratic state is backed by Communists and "Communist-infiltrated" groups. These charges the Democrats have denied.

PLAN ON GREECE IS BEFORE UN

Lake Success, Oct. 27 (AP)—A four-power proposal to bring peace to Greece by cutting off aid to Greek rebels was thrust before the United Nations today.

If the plan is carried out, it might also have the effect of forestalling any possible attacks on anti-Kremlin Yugoslavia from Soviet satellites Albania, Bulgaria and Romania.

A resolution presented to the U.N. political committee by the United States, Britain, Australia, and China, called on all countries to keep arms or other war material from getting to Albania or Bulgaria until it has been determined they have quit aiding the Greek guerrillas.

There were widely published reports last week that the Greek guerrillas—their cause lost—were being moved from Greece to countries surrounding Yugoslavia, as part of Soviet saber-rattling against Premier Marshal Tito.

Outright condemnation of Albania, Bulgaria and Romania is asked in the resolution because of the past aid given by the three Soviet satellites—which are not members of the U.N.—to the Greek guerrillas. Yugoslavia is believed to have stopped aiding the guerrillas whose leaders sided with the Russian-led Cominform.

The political committee was supposed to take up a report of a special U.N. Balkans commission at the beginning of the week. For three days it wrangled over Soviet and satellite charges that Greece was engaged on a new wave of terrorism and political executions and it took the committee until late last night to decide it had no right to interfere in Greece on that score.

Final plans for the Halloween parade here Saturday evening will be outlined this evening at a meeting of the committee and judges. The session will be held in the recreation center on Chambersburg street in the basement of the First National bank building at 7:30 o'clock.

TWO POSITIONS FILLED BY DUFF

Harrisburg, Oct. 27 (AP)—Otto F. Messner, acting Secretary of Revenue for more than a year, today had full status in Gov. James H. Duff's cabinet. Duff elevated the Lancaster native to full secretary late yesterday in his second cabinet change of the day.

Earlier Duff had designated Gene D. Smith, Allentown, as acting Secretary of the Commonwealth after accepting the resignation of Secretary Charles M. Morrison, Philadelphia, because of ill health.

Messner, 55, entered state service in 1919 in the Auditor General's department. He later transferred to the State Treasurer's office but was replaced during the Democratic Earle administration.

He re-entered the state service in 1939 as deputy Secretary of Revenue. He was named acting secretary when David H. Harris, Philadelphia, resigned the cabinet post on March 16, 1948.

Messner's salary as acting secretary was $9,000. He will draw $15,000 through his new appointment. The 1949 legislature advanced the salary of that cabinet post from $12,000 to $15,000.

A heart specialist, Dr. Peter J. Steincrohn, says in the American Magazine that after we stop breathing our brain survives anywhere from a few seconds to 15 minutes; heart muscles last 20 minutes; eyes, 30 minutes; ears, one hour; arms and leg muscles, 4 hours; blood molecules, 18 hours; bones, 3 days; skin, 5 days.

"ROMEO" YELLS CURSES IN COURT

Chicago, Oct. 27 (AP)—Sigmund (Sam) Engel, whose smooth talk landed him in jail on a half dozen charges of swindling women, cursed and screamed in criminal court yesterday.

"You're a bunch of crooks. I'm being framed," the 73-year-old roving Romeo screamed to state prosecutors and police.

The jury hearing Engel's love swindle trial was leaving the courtroom as Engel blew up. Only a few minutes earlier Judge George M. Fisher had left the bench.

Engel's outburst followed testimony by Mrs. Annette Kubiak, South Bend, Ind., widow, that Engel married her, took $5,000 from her and then disappeared.

"You scoundrels are putting words in her mouth," Engel shouted at Lt. James Oakey of the state attorney's office.

Edwin T. Breen, first assistant state's attorney, fanned Engel's resentment by asking him: "How do you like it, now that you're on the receiving end?"

Attorneys for the ordinarily dapper little man urged him to be quiet as they led him from the courtroom. Still sputtering, Engel's parting shot at the prosecutors was "You're all a bunch of crooks."

Chapter 1

All of the time she was trying on trousseau hats at Sophia's, Arleta was rebelling. She sat like a wax model, the even flow of her aunt's and Sophia's voices washing over her.

"Now this, Mrs. Ainstree, for spectator sports," murmured Sophia. "The taffeta beret in pastel shades—"

"Smart," agreed Mrs. Ainstree, "don't you agree, Arleta? Arleta!" Mrs. Ainstree caught the level look from Arleta Langtry's dark eyes. Instantly the aloof, modish figure disappeared and in its place was a stocky little girl, feet spread wide, pigtail spread at the same angle. And the look in her eyes was the same as that in those mirrored eyes as she had said, "If be in a lady means lyin', count me out."

Quickly Mrs. Ainstree rose, sighed and nodded at Sophia. "Shall we wait until tomorrow to try the others?" she glanced at her watch. "We're really due at the airport."

In the car she sat so quietly Arleta reached out a conciliatory hand. "I'm sorry, Aunt Leta, but I'll have no use for such delicate hats on the ranch."

"If you spend your honeymoon at the ranch?"

Alarm shadowed the dark eyes. "You haven't heard from Cal? He hasn't telephoned you or wired?"

"No, Arleta. But, good gracious, child, it stands to reason. The house has been vacant for years; it won't be habitable."

Arleta shook her head. "You don't understand. You've never seen it. It's built of weathered log and rock. It couldn't fall or rot away."

Later, as Arleta sat watching the thickening sky, Mrs. Ainstree spoke again. "You haven't considered Cal's preferences, Arleta. How will he enjoy a month in that remote—"

"It isn't remote! Besides, he told me I could make a choice. And, Aunt Leta," the voice swelled with emotion, "I want to go home."

Mrs. Ainstree's lips settled in a determined line. She must see this through. She must keep Arleta, her namesake, from learning why she had never been allowed to return.

The girl's engagement to Calvin Sheridan had been an answer to her year-long prayers. Once they were married she could relax her vigilance. If Calvin had only confided in her before flying West to investigate the last of the Langtry holdings.

The chauffeur had looked back. "Don't think any ships are landing here today, Mrs. Ainstree. Fog's thickening every minute. Want I should turn back?"

Dimly she heard her aunt tell Martin to drive on, they would check with the airport. They had quarreled before he left; his very leaving was part of that quarrel. Like a record repeating itself over and over she heard their quarrel.

"But, Leta, be reasonable. When I said it was your choice I thought—well, a cruise, or perhaps a hop around the States in my plane."

"We can hop to the ranch, Cal."

"All right. But do you want to spend your honeymoon cooking and scrubbing or however you keep the place clean? And can you cook?"

"Cal, I told you Martin's son and his wife will go on ahead. I'd like to leave them there."

"I know, I know," Cal had slid down in the seat of the car, blond head tipped back against the cushions. "Now that young Martin's won his sheepskin he wants to out-Carver Carver."

Arleta could have said many things. Instead she laughed.

But Cal's mind had swept on. He sat up, showing more interest than heretofore. "Of course you haven't seen the place for eight, nearly nine years. You were a spoiled brat. Could be your memory's played you tricks."

"These pictures were taken four years ago. Dad—Big Chips they called him—took them just before—she hesitated a moment—"just before that hunting trip." The trip from which he hadn't returned; the trip which had turned her mother's unimportant heart condition from chronic to acute.

"If we keep Mart's son and his wife out there... not a bad idea. But later, we've only a month and a half to make our plans, Leta."

And because she'd felt it she didn't force the issue now he'd never go, they'd quarreled.

As they neared the city Mrs. Ainstree broke the long silence. "Arleta dear, I don't like to pry, but you've never told me why Calvin decided to fly West. Was the decision sudden?"

"Yes, it was. He telephoned to ask the name of the nearest town likely to have a civil airport; then an hour later Jicky brought a note from him telling me he'd gone on 'reconnaissance'."

"Arleta," Mrs. Ainstree gripped her niece's hand, "you know I have your best interests at heart. If when Calvin returns he makes an issue of the locale of your honeymoon, make the concession."

"And Leta, listen closely. Calvin comes of an excellent family. Oh, I know how you feel about family, but, dear child, we do inherit the traits of our ancestors. If our environment doesn't build up a resistance to our inherited faults—"

She paused, and Arleta turned wondering eyes upon her. Did Calvin then have some inherited weakness?

But they were at home and Arleta's maid was running down the steps with a message. "Mister Calvin, he's comin' in the depot at five o'clock and will you please to meet him?"

Arleta would have changed to her own car, changed to wings to speed the meeting, but her aunt objected. "There is no reason why Martin can't take you. And, Leta, try to bring Calvin home for a family dinner."

Martin gave Arleta an expressive roll of his eyes. "That's all right, Miss Leta. Martin he can't hear a thing; this yere glass closed."

"But, Martin—"

"I know, Little Miss. His voice was sympathetic. 'Yet you always have to figure she don't her best for you and Mister Calvin.'"

Arleta settled back as the car headed into the thick gloom.

Chapter 2

The depot loomed out of the fog. Martin parked the car and announced he'd "go along in."

Martin appeared with luggage.

"Mister Calvin, he run onto some kinkfolk," the chauffeur reported. "He ask can we take them home?"

The "kinkfolk" (he was "something with the government") chatted with her. They'd heard so much about her; her newspaper photographs didn't do her justice. And while they chatted Arleta's mind ran in frantic circles. Cal had changed. But no it was the presence of this couple imposing a restraint. He was looking at her in such a strange way. No, she was imagining things; how could she fathom his glance in this gloom?

And then the kinkfolk were left at the Mayflower and the car was heading back to Virginia and Calvin was speaking to Martin.

"Martin, think you can find the club field in this fog? I left my car there." And to Arleta he said, "I want to drive back to the ship in the morning. Came down in an emergency field and I don't trust the service there."

She asked all of the proper questions. Had he had a nice trip? He hadn't. It was no time of the year for cross-country flying in a small ship. Oh, he'd made good enough time.

Then he had spent the full two weeks at the ranch, she thought. "Couldn't you stop for dinner, Cal?"

He'd left his bags in the ship. He would like to get home.

Then did he mean to send her back with Martin? she wondered.

He didn't. He dispatched Martin, tucked Arleta into his car, got in himself, but made no move toward starting the motor.

And then he said in a terse voice, "The ranch is out."

Of course she'd known it the moment she'd caught his first scrutinizing glance.

"All right." Her voice was a mere whisper, and then it began to swell with eagerness. "But tell me about it, Cal. Was it so bad, so completely run down, the house?"

"I didn't go up," he replied. "Flew over. There was no pasture, the place is a mass of greasewood, take a month to clear it."

"But, Cal, if you didn't go in—"

He'd said up, that meant he must know it was high on a plateau.

"Talked to some men who'd been hunting. But look, Leta, let's not discuss it. If we do we'll quarrel. You're carrying a glorified image of the place you knew in your childhood. I understand."

"Let's forget that. Uncle Jack's yacht offer is still good. I want to settle that tonight. We'll take a few friends with us."

He painted a word picture of long, golden days on a purple blue sea, of close friends to break the monotony; of putting into small ports, hiring horses for trips inland, or stopping over at quaint hostleries.

And perversely, her thoughts painted a picture of long green days bristling with activity, of their own mounts, and riding where she'd ridden as a child.

"I seem to be two persons," she offered apologetically: "the Eastern one, the Arleta you know; and the Western one, Chips—"

"Chips." The word seemed to come from between his teeth, and then he spoke again, quickly. "So I'll phone Uncle Jack tonight."

Had he shown any tenderness—Had he, once they were alone, kissed her, even sat with his arm about her—He hadn't. He'd sat as a stranger making a business proposition.

"Well?"

It was Chips and not Arleta who answered. "Well, what?" she retorted. "You seem to be making the decisions. Shall we start home? It's cold and Aunt Leta will be worried."

They made the trip in silence. He took her as far as the door, "I'll call you tomorrow about five. I want to get up to the ship in the morning. I'm due at Miami the next day. I told you about the two-week fishing trip."

The door opened as Arleta nodded. "Have a grand time and may they all be big ones."

She thought, "What's wrong with the ranch? I know it's there. I know it's mine. Why do they keep me from going back?"

At first she had been too young to travel alone. And then there'd been the wartime transportation problem. And then her father had been killed in that hunting accident. And before she'd recovered from that, her mother had died.

She had not known of either

Tunnel Work Is Halted By Dispute

Pittsburgh, Oct. 27 (P)—Construction on the Squirrel Hill tunnel has been halted by a jurisdictional dispute between two AFL unions.

Piledrivers, affiliated with the AFL Heavy Construction Workers, walked death in time to make the journey West. Yet her sister Arline had known, had come from the Islands to attend the final rites of both parents. Of course Arline was older than she, ten years older. And Arline had a husband, and now children. And Arline had been named executor of the estate. She didn't mind Arleta inheriting the ranch. She did mind her refusal to sell. Why?

And now Calvin.

"If I only knew for sure there was nothing more than chance—"

She stood up. The fire flared by the sweeping swirl of her skirts, lighted the frame of a photograph on a low stand. Big Chips, her father, was staring at her with what his men called his "to hell with it" expression; the very look he'd given her when she'd thought she heard a rattlesnake in the garbage pit.

"Take your pistol and find out. If you don't you'll never be able to go near it without fear."

Arleta stood up, stretched as though she were bursting bonds and then smiled at the photograph. "Thanks, Chips," she said. "I'll do that."

off the job because, they said, a member of the AFL Laborer's Union was employed as a signalman. Carpenters joined the walkout and picket lines halted all work on the tunnel, a link in the new Pennsylvania Lincoln highway. Union officials declined comment.

Only seven of the 45 men on the 1949 University of Miami football team weigh 200 pounds or over, with End Ralph Fieles the heaviest at 218.

FIVE FACTS ON NEW PA. SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY LAW ON AUTOS

Leaflets are being distributed by the Department of Revenue on the provisions of the new safety responsibility law affecting motorists. It will become effective February 1.

Explained briefly in the leaflets, which may be obtained at the Gettysburg substation of the state police, the safety responsibility law is an act of the legislature to protect anyone in the state against financially irresponsible owners or operators of motor vehicles who become involved in accidents. It is also designed for street and highway safety, facilitating the state's ability to move habitual accident causes off the road.

The law will affect all motor vehicle owners and operators, including non-residents, except vehicles owned by the United States, state or its political subdivisions, any municipality, when they become involved in an accident resulting in death or injury to a person or property damage exceeding $100.

Must Report Accidents
Within 24 hours after a motor vehicle accident resulting in injuries to any person or damage to any person's property in excess of $10, the operator of every car involved must file a written report in the Department of Revenue. Official forms for this purpose may be obtained from any notary public, office of the peace, alderman or police department.

The Revenue department issues a warning:

"You must report the accident regardless of who is to blame. If the operator of a car involved is physically incapable of reporting, it is the duty of any other participant in the accident to forward the report."

"Be smart—get a report form now and keep it in your car. Failure to report an accident, as previously outlined, is punishable by a fine of $10, plus costs, and in default of payment, by imprisonment for not more than five days. Willful failure, refusal or neglect to report is also punishable by suspension of license."

Can Lose Privileges

The Revenue department asks the questions: "Can you lose your motorist's privileges?" and answers: "Yes, both your driving and registration licenses can be suspended under this law. Within 60 days after receiving a report of an accident which has resulted in injury or death or damage to property of any person exceeding $100, the secretary of revenue must enforce suspension unless he has received satisfactory evidence that you have been released from liability, or been adjudicated not to be liable, or executed a duly acknowledged written agreement providing for the payment of all claims, not exceeding $11,000, resulting from the accident, or deposited with the secretary of revenue security in an amount sufficient to pay such claims, as determined by the secretary, up to $11,000."

"Remember these points," the revenue department cautions: "suspension is automatic. It remains in force until one of the above requirements has been met or one year has elapsed without court action for damages being filed. Suspension of registration applies to all cars owned by you. Under certain circumstances you can be required to maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future. The security provisions of the law do not apply if your car was properly parked at the time of the accident or was being operated without your permission."

Offers Protection
The law provides several ways in which the motorist may protect himself.

"You must, regardless of any insurance you carry, report an accident in which a person is killed or injured or property damage exceeds $100."

"Remember these points," the revenue department cautions: "suspension is automatic. It remains in force until one of the above requirements has been met or one year has elapsed without court action for damages being filed. Suspension of registration applies to all cars owned by you. Under certain circumstances you can be required to maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future. The security provisions of the law do not apply if your car was properly parked at the time of the accident or was being operated without your permission."

ENVOY TO CEYLON
—Joseph C. Satterthwaite (above), career diplomat for twenty-five years, has been nominated by President Truman to be Ambassador to Ceylon.

$100. Thereafter, however, this law does not apply to an operator or owner of a motor vehicle under any of the following conditions:

"The the operator or owner if such owner had in effect at the time of the accident an automobile liability policy with respect to the car involved."

"To the operator, if not the owner of such motor vehicle, if there was in effect at the time of the accident an automobile liability policy or bond with respect to his operation of motor vehicles not owned by him."

"To the operator or owner if the liability of such operator or owner for damages resulting from the accident is, in the judgment of the secretary of revenue, covered by any other form of liability insurance policy or bond."

"Insurance for resident owners or operators must be written by an insurance company licensed to do business in Pennsylvania and provide the following minimum coverage: $1,000 for property damage; $5,000 for injuries sustained by one person; $10,000 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident."

"The law also provides that owners of more than 25 cars may qualify as self-insurers. In the case of non-resident owners or operators who are involved in an accident in Pennsylvania, adequate insurance written by a company licensed to do business in their state will be accepted."

"Remember these points: in order to avoid the security penalties of the law, you must file with the secretary of revenue satisfactory information that you carried adequate insurance at the time of the accident. Provision for furnishing such information is included in your accident report."

Otto P. Messner, acting secretary of revenue, says in conclusion: "This statement is published primarily to acquaint private passenger car owners and operators with the principal provisions of the new law. It does not purport to set forth all statutory provisions or to discuss any of them in legal detail. Owners or operators who desire complete information may obtain a copy of the law from the secretary of revenue."

"Remember these points," the revenue department cautions: "suspension is automatic. It remains in force until one of the above requirements has been met or one year has elapsed without court action for damages being filed. Suspension of registration applies to all cars owned by you. Under certain circumstances you can be required to maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future. The security provisions of the law do not apply if your car was properly parked at the time of the accident or was being operated without your permission."

FORD PENSION PLAN OKAYED BY EMPLOYEES

Detroit, Oct. 27 (AP)—The automobile industry marked another milestone in its labor relations history today.

Ford's $100-a-month pension plan, first in the industry, was approved. Applying to Ford's 115,000 production workers, the plan was accepted in a vote by the Ford rank and file membership of the CIO United Auto Workers.

Unofficially estimated to cost $30,000,000 a year, the plan will be paid for entirely by the company.

It is the major part of a 10-cent-an-hour package and in general follows the recommendations of President Truman's fact-finding commission in the steel dispute.

Peace To Follow
For the time being at least its approval assured peace in the auto industry.

Pensions have been the UAW-CIO's No. 1 objective in its 1949 bargaining drive. A wage increase was sidetracked at Ford in favor of pensions. Late last night the union announced "overwhelming" approval from the rank and file.

This was based to large degree on the vote at Ford's big River Rouge plant. Previously, however, the vote in others of Ford's 50 factories was said to be running heavily in favor of acceptance. Rouge's key vote was announced as 32,392 in favor as against 7,130 opposed.

The Ford plan provides that a worker who retires at age 65 after 30 years' service will be paid $100 a month, inclusive of social security benefits. Retirement at 65 is voluntary; at 68, compulsory.

Under the now-approved new contract with the UAW, the company will contribute 6 1/2 cents an hour to the pension plan. The worker pays nothing into the plan. The company will apply the remainder of the 10 cents package to health and welfare benefits, the so-called fringe terms of the contract.

There is no wage increase. The auto worker's average pay is about $1.65 an hour. The new Ford contract runs for two and a half years. A minority left wing group within the UAW had opposed the plan as "inadequate."

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 27 (AP)—John H. Murdoch, Jr., of Washington, Pa., starts another term today as president of the Pennsylvania Water Work Association. Also re-elected at the opening yesterday of the group's 53rd annual meeting were Nathan B. Jacobs of Pittsburgh, first vice president; W. F. O. Rosenmiller of York, Pa., second vice president; and Alan K. Taylor of Brownsville, Pa., third vice president. W. A. Kufs of Lemoyne, Pa., was chosen secretary-treasurer. Some 300 association members are attending the meeting.

Advance Work On Sealing Old Mines

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—Hills and valleys of southwest and central Pennsylvania scarred by former coal mining operations are being restored to beauty.

The state Department of Mines opened a new mine sealing headquarters in Uniontown this week to spur the work of reclamation.

Sealing up the former mines in Fayette and Greene counties and parts of Westmoreland and Washington counties will go far toward cleaning up streams in that wide area. Sulphur water draining from abandoned pits is a major source of stream pollution.

The new Uniontown office will work on the Georges Creek, Hickman and Hall Runs and Little Sandy Creek water sheds. These are tributaries of the Monongahela, Youghiogheny and Cheat rivers respectively.

Guard Is Warned War Can Strike

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 27 (AP)—National Guardsmen were set to wind up their 71st conference here today after hearing a warning from Gen. Omar N. Bradley that war could strike suddenly.

Bradley told delegates to the conference yesterday that "miscalculation or unfortunate incident" could lead to war without warning and that "the guard should be ready to move home divisions to combat a war upon short notice in event of mobilization."

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff said he did not think war is inevitable. He pointed out, however, that the United States probably won't have the time to mobilize that it had in past conflicts.

"It's up to you, you members of the National Guard," he said, "to prepare yourselves to be ready for action much more quickly than you have ever had to before."

Gen. Bradley, who was feature speaker at yesterday's meeting, declined to plunge into the scrap over federalization of the guard but repeated that he felt it would be impracticable at present.

CUSTOMERS' CORNER

Is it wrong for us to give you more good food for your money?

Is it wrong for you to shop at our stores if by so doing you will make our business grow?

Apparently the anti-trust lawyers, who are trying to put A&P out of business, think so.

Apparently the American people don't agree with the anti-trust lawyers, for many, many thousands of them are writing and saying:

"We like A&P and we don't want them put out of business."

U.S. IMMIGRANT SAYS 'THANK GOD FOR AMERICA'

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, in his capacity as president of Columbia university, has urged his big army of students to seek opportunity rather than security.

"The best example of perfect security," he said, "is a man serving a life term in a federal prison."

General Ike was speaking for a lot of us when he said that. Of course everybody wants reasonable security. But what terrifies the average citizen of any country which encourages private initiative is the thought of a regimented security—a security which puts him on the self-same plane with everybody else —a security which he can't escape because it's just too darned good.

No Greater Opportunity

One encounters this thought in many quarters these changing days. I ran into an interesting example of it down in the subterranean labyrinth of passages and stores beneath New York's Rockefeller Plaza. Among the shop-keepers of the underground city is Joseph Suozzi, a friendly Italian-American of 72 who runs two shoe-shining and quick repair establishments—apparently on a very profitable basis, too. I dropped in on him for a shine and found him fuming over a newspaper headline.

"Why is it," he exploded, "that there are people, many of them from foreign lands, who are out to turn this wonderful country of opportunity into a totalitarian state? Heaven itself couldn't provide greater opportunities than this wonderful America! They should have had my experience!"

"Tell me about it," I replied, and

SMOG STRUCK ONE YEAR AGO

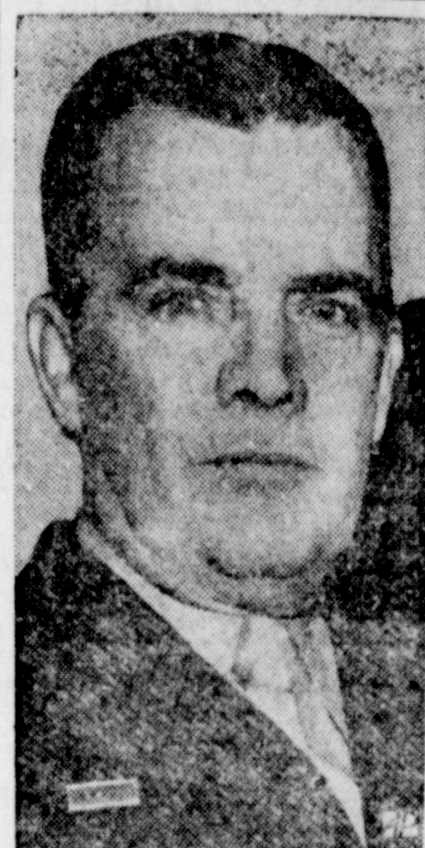

Donora, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—A year ago today a heavy blanket of fog hung immobile over this Monongahela Valley town.

Smoke and industrial fumes, unable to rise, mixed in the mist. The fog blanket became lethal. Thousands gasped and struggled to breathe. Twenty died.

On Sunday churches in Donora and in the little town of Webster across the river will hold memorial services for the victims of the Donora smog.

Last week the United States Public Health service released its long awaited report on the Donora disaster. The report said 42.7 per cent of the population in the Donora-Webster area—or 5,910 persons—were affected.

The report affixed no blame on any one plant or industry. But 17 damage suits, totalling more than one and a half million dollars, have been filed against the American Steel and Wire company, a United States Steel subsidiary which operates the Donora Zinc works. The suits have been filed in Federal District court, Pittsburgh, on behalf of relatives of the Donora smog victims.

CHEMICAL HEAD—Maj. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe (above), who said "Nuts" to the Germans at Bastogne, has been named Chief of the Army Chemical Corps by President Truman.

Johnson Sees No Room For Duplication

New York, Oct. 27 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson said last night that America cannot afford the luxury of a defense setup composed of competing services with duplicating roles.

"Honorable roles and missions are assigned to each of the three services," he said. "Each gets the part it is best qualified to do in the opinion of the joint chiefs of staff."

And he added: "This does not necessarily mean that each is directed to do what he would best like to do. Nor do the plans allow for the luxury of competing and duplicating roles to be paid for out of the pockets of the American taxpayer, whose tax burden is already approaching the rock bottom limit."

Johnson used his place on the New York Herald Tribune's forum on "the interdependence of world problems" to comment indirectly on the defense squabble highlighted by Navy resentment of its place under unification.

RIGHT-WINGERS TO PURGE CIO

Cleveland, Oct. 27 (AP)—The CIO's confident right-wing majority planned today to expel at least three—or maybe all 12—unions whose leaders have shown pro-Communist sympathies.

A resolutions committee under the United Auto Worker's head, Walter P. Reuther, was ready to fight it out on the floor of next week's convention if necessary.

It is determined to oust the three unions most critical of Philip Murray's leadership: The United Electrical Workers, with nearly 400,000 members, the Farm Equipment Workers with about 50,000, and the mine, mill and smelter workers numbering 100,000.

The plan of action decided upon by the powerful right-wing faction—but subject to plenty of pressure before it can be put into effect—calls for kicking out the three unions next Wednesday.

Charters of the three would be challenged on the floor. First resolutions will be offered Tuesday.

Should representatives of the nine other so-called left-wing unions come to the defense of the three most controversial unions, they will be tossed out too, according to the plan.

learned on the counter beside him.

Came Here At 13

"I was thirteen years old when I landed in New York in 1890 as an immigrant from a town near Naples," said Souzi. "I was alone, for my family remained in Italy, but I had $5 in my pocket and friends in New York. It was a great adventure."

"For a while I shined shoes and made $2 a day. Then I went into a foundry as a molder's helper for $3 a week, and finally earned $6 or $7 a week. Of course living was cheaper in those days, and I could get board and room for $8 a month."

"In seven years I saved $400—and lost it in a bank crash. But I had faith. I said: 'Here a man can rise. He has opportunities.' So I carried on, and when I was 21 I became naturalized. America was my country."

Knows Old World Evils

"Among the various jobs I had was that of elevator man at the old Hotel Manhattan. There I formed a speaking acquaintance with many famous men—Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, William McKinley, John D. Rockefeller, Sr. That's the sort of thing that can happen in America."

"Well, things moved along all right with me. I got married and there were five children. We returned to Italy for a bit to be with my people, and there I experienced the evils of the Mussolini dictatorship. We were glad to get back to free America. In 1929 I established these two shoe-shining shops—and we have done all right."

"If immigrants told their children of their experiences and what America offers, there wouldn't be so many subversive elements at work. Here we have freedom and opportunity. Freedom is the ability to develop as one wants. There is no regimentation."

"Thank God for America."

Widespread Manhunt Today For Convicts Who Fled Delaware County Prison

DARING BREAK THROUGH FRONT GATE SUCCEEDS

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 27 (AP)—A widespread manhunt was on today for eight convicts who escaped from the New Castle county prison with guns and ammunition taken from the jail arsenal.

The eight—led by a 20-year-old life term prisoner—made a daring break through the prison's front gate last night after locking up Guard Captain Harry Harrington and using another guard as a shield.

A burst of machine gun fire from a prison tower failed to stop them.

Five of the escapees were reported to have boarded a Pennsylvania railroad freight train bound for Reading, Pa. Two others forced J. L. Elliott, a stationery store clerk, to drive two blocks in his own car and then shoved him out before driving off.

Set Up Road Blocks
The car was recovered several hours later, abandoned in Kennett Square, Pa.

State police established roadblocks throughout the Wilmington area and alerted authorities of adjoining states to be on the lookout for the men, described as "dangerous."

Harrington's version of the escape gave these details:

Shortly before 7 p. m. (EST), the prisoners were taken back to their cell blocks from the exercise yard.

Jumps Guard
Danny Norris, 20-year-old life term convict of slaying Wilmington Detective Thomas Conaty on Christmas, 1947, asked Harrington for an aspirin. The convicts then jumped Harrington and Guard Harry Beck.

The two guards were marched to a cell and locked in. During the scuffle, Beck sustained slight head injuries when he was struck with a window sash weight.

Leaving his companions hidden behind a staircase, Norris went to the door leading to the main portion of the prison building. He asked Guard Charles Lynch to let him through to get some papers from the printing shop where Norris worked.

Use Lynch As Shield
As Lynch opened the door, he was seized and marched past the office of Warden Elwood H. Wilson to the prison arsenal. There, the convicts used Lynch's keys to open the arsenal door and took a quantity of guns and ammunition.

Handcuffing Lynch, the men marched in single file prison fashion toward the gate house with Lynch at the head of the line, a pistol in his back.

One of the convicts pressed the button controlling the electrically-operated gate and the parade moved out into the open.

Escape Bullets
Tower Guard Raymond Pritchard spotted the men but withheld fire until the convicts shoved Lynch aside and ran. Then he fired a burst of bullets but apparently none struck the fleeing men.

Elliott said one of the men came to his house, only two blocks from the prison, and said his companion was injured.

"I went out with him," Elliott said, "and a man was lying on the sidewalk. The other fellow helped him to his feet and helped him into the back of my car. But they both acted so nervous I got suspicious. I suggested we better call an ambulance."

"Then the other man pulled a pistol and shoved me into the car," Elliott said. "My wife saw it from the window and screamed. They didn't say anything until we got about a block away, then the one at the wheel slammed on his brakes and they told me to get out."

List of Escapees

The escaped convicts in addition to Norris were identified as: John H. Miner, 25, Florida, serving a life term for murder; Joseph Langford, 25, Bellefonte, Del., 10 years for robbery; Willie Edwards, 28, Satsuma, Ala., one year for ob-

Mrs. Maxwell Dickey and son, John, of Clear Spring, Md., visited recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Spence.

GRANGE MEET ENDS
Kane, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—About 2,500 delegates to the 77th annual meeting of the state Grange will end their three-day session today with elections and adoption of resolutions. One member will be named each to the executive and finance committees. Selenium is a chemical element sensitive to light.

How To Grow Poinsettias

The rare beauty of poinsettias need not be limited to a week or two of enjoyment after Christmas. These plants may be grown easily from cuttings and used indoors all winter. Full instructions for starting new plants, handling specimens in full bloom, soils, temperature, insect control, care after bloom, and other useful information are included in our simplified poinsettia growing instructions. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope or a 3-cent stamp for your free copy. Include all the house plant questions desired.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give speedy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

News Of Special Interest To The Residents Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

ACTIVITIES FOR PTA GROUP ARE BEING PLANNED

The second meeting of the Emmitsburg public school's Parent-Teacher association was held Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

The attendance banner was won by Classes 5 and 6, Mrs. Henry Charlton's room.

Plans were made for next month's program. A work shop will be held for reconditioning clothes, books and toys for needy children at Christmas time. Contributions of any of these items will be greatly appreciated, association officers said.

A program was presented by two classes. The 7th graders under the direction of Mrs. Harry Scott gave choral speaking and life sketches of Stevenson and Longfellow. Mrs. Henry Charlton's 5th and 6th graders gave a Halloween skit. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Plan Halloween Dance

Eight busloads of sophomore students from the Seton high school in Baltimore, where Sister Mary Catherine is registrar, attended the biology classes at St. Joseph's college on Tuesday.

St. Joseph's Parent-Teacher association is sponsoring a Halloween dance for the high school students on Friday evening to be held in the school auditorium. Mrs. Bernard Boyle is chairman of the committee arranging for the dance.

Mrs. Clarence Watcher announced a profit of $72 at the benefit party held at Saint Joseph's on Saturday night for the Parent-Teacher association.

Give Girl Scout Plans

Mrs. Carlos Engler is the new Girl Scout Troop leader for the Emmitsburg Girl Scouts. There will be two patrols; the girls from 12 to 16 years of age will be known as the "Beetle Bums" patrol with Shirley Troxell serving as president and Lois Kellholtz as treasurer. The secretary will be announced later. These girls are working on their first class badges and will meet each Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Engler, who will also be their patrol leader.

The girls from 10 to 12 years old will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 p. m. at the VFW home. The patrol leader has not been announced for this group, but the officers are Theodora Rybkowsky, president; Linda Hummerick, treasurer; and Theresa Rybkowsky, secretary. The patrol will be known as the "Busy Bee" patrol.

Miss Sue Hays has been selected as president of the Girl Scout troop. Helen Bushman as vice president, Shirley Troxell as secretary and Lois Kellholtz, treasurer.

The Indian Lookout Conservation club held a short business meeting on Tuesday evening in the Firemen's hall with 25 members present.

Guest of Honor

Harry Scott, of near Emmitsburg, was the guest of honor at a surprise party given by Mrs. Scott recently. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. John Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. John Roddy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Guy Baker and Victor Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bishop, of Pittsburgh, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stoner, West Main street.

Joseph Burdner, New York city, a former resident of Emmitsburg, has joined the New York sales staff of Beh and company. He formerly covered the Pittsburgh territory for the company. Mr. Burdner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burdner, East Main street.

VFW Auxiliary To Hold Party Tonight

The Ladies Auxiliary to Memorial post 6658, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Emmitsburg, will hold the annual Halloween party this evening at 8 p. m. in the basement at the Post home. Each member of the Auxiliary will be permitted to bring one guest.

The committee in charge promises a gala evening, full of surprises and entertainment. Prizes for the various costumes will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. David Martin and Mrs. John Palmer left yesterday morning for Lexington, Va., to visit relatives and friends.

Sister Mary Catherine, former principal of Saint Joseph's high school, and who is now registrar at the Seton high school of Baltimore was visited on Sunday by the following friends from Emmitsburg: Hugh Rocks, Donald Rodgers, Michael Boyle, Patrick Boyle, William Sterbinsky, David Adams, Richard Topper, John Walter, Robert Jordan, Mrs. Bernard Boyle, Dorothy Fitzgerald and Patrick Fitzgerald.

Donald Flax, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Flax, East Main street underwent an operation on the knee yesterday at the University of Maryland hospital, Baltimore. Donald was admitted to the hospital on Tuesday afternoon.

The Auxiliary of the American Legion post No. 121 held a Halloween party at the post home Tuesday evening, where they enjoyed dancing to the music furnished by the Peeche brothers of Fairfield. A prize was won by Mrs. Viola Eyer. The regular Auxiliary meeting will be held next Tuesday evening, November 1, at 8 p. m.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Elias Lutheran church held a monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. George Eyster, West Main street, with 12 members present. "The Lutheran Student was the topic and after a general discussion and a short business meeting, the members enjoyed a social hour. It was also decided to send several representatives to the fall rally to be held at Burkittsville, Md., on Thursday, November 3.

Miss Sue Hays has been selected as president of the Girl Scout troop. Helen Bushman as vice president, Shirley Troxell as secretary and Lois Kellholtz, treasurer.

HITS SHIPING IN ARMED FORCES

Oil City, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—Rep. Leon H. Gavin (R-Pa.) says it is time for the armed services "to stop all shiping at each other and buckle down in a team effort to build the best possible national defense."

Gavin, a member of the Congressional Armed Services committee just back from Washington, made the statement in an interview.

"Unification is here to stay," declared Gavin. "The joint chiefs of staff have all had an opportunity to press their cases. We all feel better when we have a gripe and get it off our chest. This investigation has cleared the air."

"Secretary of Defense Johnson, I feel confident, will be able to work out all misunderstandings to the satisfaction of all three service branches."

"It is my opinion," he continued, "that this investigation has done

To Hang Gandhi's Assassin Nov. 15

New Delhi, India, Oct. 27 (AP)—The home ministry announced today that N. V. Godse and Narayan Apte will be hanged November 15 for the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi in January, 1948.

Godse, who shot Gandhi, and Apte were convicted of the assassination conspiracy and sentenced to death last February by a special court in Delhi's Red fort.

Five other convicted conspirators were sentenced to life imprisonment. One defendant was acquitted.

much good and will bring about a better understanding for all."

Gavin declared the service leaders are men of "courage and valor" and that their recent testimony before the committee showed them to be competing "to be given the first opportunity to do the fighting in event of an emergency. This evidences their fighting spirit and their fine morale."

VFW OFFERS TO HELP PLAN FOR WAR MEMORIAL

Emmitsburg's Veterans of Foreign Wars are hoping that expressions of a desire to construct a memorial to World War II dead from the Emmitsburg area will turn into the construction of something of value to the entire community, possibly a community center.

A committee comprising Charles Rowe, Fred Bower, Louis Stoner and Everett Chrismer has been set up by the post to see what can be done about turning the discussions concerning a memorial into a reality without making it appear that the vets' post is seeking to "push" the town into action.

Commander Wales Rightmire explained: "Since the end of World War II, there has been much talk in the community about a memorial to World War II similar to the World War I memorial. We feel that the doughboy statue more than fills its purpose of honoring all Emmitsburg area men who served in the armed forces, both in World War I and World War II.

"At the same time we feel that since there is a great desire to place some type of memorial for World War II, we want to suggest that

Joe Kuhel Going To Kansas City

New York, Oct. 27 (AP)—Joe Kuhel is a member of the New York Yankees sprawling baseball family—his job, manager of the Kansas City Blues of the American association.

The onetime major league first baseman, who just finished a two-year tenure as manager of the Washington Senators, was hired by the Yankees yesterday to direct their triple-A affiliate.

Kuhel succeeds Bill Skiff, who remains in the organization in a capacity not yet disclosed.

the expression of that desire take the form of something of value to the community—perhaps a community center which could be used by youngsters and adults alike."

Rightmire pointed out that "We do not want to appear to be sponsoring a memorial to World War II veterans, nor do we want to appear to be forcing the town into taking any action, nor do we want to appear as if we are asking for a memorial, and then saying what it should be. None of that is true. But there has been much talk about a memorial and the committee was appointed to determine just what the talk may develop into and to offer such suggestions as may be appropriate and acceptable."

The Sahara desert is believed to be enlarging to the southward.

FULL MEANING OF WAGE-HOUR LAW UNCERTAIN

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, Oct. 27 (AP)—You're an employer. There's a new minimum wage-hour law. You want to know right now precisely what each item in it means and how it affects you, your business, your employees.

At this moment no one can give an answer saying what the law means in every possible case. Generally, this much is true:

Most employees, employers and businesses covered by the old law, which was passed in 1938, are covered by the new law. But the new law has removed some people from coverage and has made some other changes as well.

Chief Change
The outstanding change: Every employee covered by the law now must be paid a minimum of 75 cents an hour. Under the old law the minimum was 40 cents.

But there were other changes, some of them stated in such clear language by Congress that no one can misunderstand them. For example:

A public telephone exchange, and its operators, are exempt from the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the law if—that exchange serves less than 750 stations. A number of other businesses and their employees are also exempted, clearly, under the new law.

May Take Court Decisions
But the law's effect on other businesses and their employees is far less clear. It's so unclear, in fact, that it probably will take years before court decisions say precisely what the effect is in different cases.

That's why—because of lack of clarity in the law—the wage-hour administration experts, who interpret the law and lay down the rules, can't at this time give opinions

STEEL PEACE EFFORTS ARE BEING PUSHED

By NORMAN WALKER
Washington, Oct. 27 (AP)—Top administration officials offered different versions today of President Truman's plan for dealing with the steel and coal strikes. Meanwhile, the tempo of steel peace efforts stepped up in New York.

A cabinet officer reported that the home on Main street, extended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lance McClellan and Mr. and Mrs. Albert McClellan, of Emmitsburg, spent the week-end at Endless Caverns, Va.

President has decided to step in if the strikes are not settled by the end of the week.

But another official, prominent in behind-scenes planning of the Truman labor policies, insisted that the President has set no deadline whatever for White House action—that he is still hoping for voluntary settlements.

Press Conference Today
Said this latter official in reference to the cabinet officer: "Evidently, the gentleman misunderstood the President, because I talked to Mr. Truman a half hour later and found out he hadn't made any decision to intervene, or fixed any deadline." Neither officials was willing to be identified publicly. Both are close to the President.

Mr. Truman was certain to be asked about his intentions at his weekly news conference, scheduled for 4 p. m. (EST). In advance, the White House said merely that the steel strike was in the hands of government Mediation Chief Cyrus S. Ching.

Union Won't Budge
Ching was reported trying to get Philip Murray, president of the CIO and head of its striking steelworkers union, to negotiate directly today with the U. S. Steel corporation in New York. Murray went to New York from meetings in Cleveland with his CIO lieutenants.

The union has refused to budge from its position that the dispute should be settled according to the terms of a report by a Presidential fact finding board. This called for employer-paid pension-insurance benefits worth up to 10 cents an hour.

Steel firms have all agreed to put up that amount of money if the workers will chip in something too. The possibility of getting Murray to meet with U. S. Steel's representatives was not too remote. On Tuesday the corporation's chairman, Irving S. Olds, said it seemed sensible for company and union to "sit down and see how far we could get toward agreeing on a pension program."

Murray had declined to comment on Olds' suggestion. There had been no direct negotiations between the union and steel companies since the strike began October 1.

While forests are cooler than plains, they tend to be warmer at night because trees retard the escape of heat.

MEXICANS WIN SIX 1ST PRIZES AT HORSE SHOW

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—Mexico all but needed a van today to cart off the host of trophies and ribbons it won at the Pennsylvania National Horse show.

Six first places in individual military jumping contests and two as a team far outstripped the performances of competing riders from Ireland, Chile and Canada.

The two individual classes in which it lost out went to Chile. And only a surprise victory by Ireland in the closing event last night prevented the south-of-the-border contingent from making a clean sweep of team competition.

Going to New York
The military teams next go to New York for the National Horse show at Madison Square Garden November 1-8.

Except for an occasional lapse the Mexicans looked the part of their role as 1949 Olympic champions and conquerors of every military team they met in various shows over the world last year.

One of the lapses occurred last night as the Mexicans finished third behind Ireland and Chile in competing for the president's perpetual challenge trophy presented by Brig. Gen. A. H. Stackpole, president of the Pennsylvania National Horse Show association.

In non-military jumping competition All Affre, a brown gelding from Millard farm, Anville, Pa., topped the Pennsylvania Hotels challenge trophy as champion jumper of the show.

Invitation Gave Lincoln Cue For Address At Gettysburg

Chicago, (AP)—Abraham Lincoln may have taken a cue for his Gettysburg address from a man named David Willis.

Joseph L. Elsendath, Jr., secretary of the Civil War Round Table of Chicago, says some of Willis' ideas were adopted by Lincoln.

He offers evidence to support his views in a study completed just before the 85th anniversary of the famous speech of November 19, 1863. Willis was head of a commission in charge of the dedication of the Soldiers Cemetery on the Gettysburg battlefield. He wrote an invitation to Lincoln.

"The President must have referred to the Willis letter as he prepared his talk," Elsendath says.

He finds a "striking similarity" in certain passages. "Certainly," he concludes, "it seems that the President made a very noteworthy attempt to follow out Willis' suggestions."

Willis asked Lincoln to make "a few remarks."

Ship and Pennsylvania Cement Industry challenge trophy went to Count Steffen, a nine-year-old grey gelding shown by Mrs. Elizabeth G. Bosley, Monkton, Md. Reserve champion was Magno, a small grey gelding displayed by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kehoe, Center Moreland, Pa.

Merry Wilson, entered by the Hereford Manor farm, Zelenople, Pa., repeated a 1947 triumph in grabbing off the $1,000 championship walking horse stake.

Wing Commander, entered by Dodge stables, Lexington, Ky., took the $2,000 championship five-gaited saddle horse stake and Anthracite Coal Industry challenge trophy.

Lincoln spoke for only two minutes.

"The grounds will be consecrated," Willis wrote.

Lincoln took it up from there and said: "But, in a larger sense, we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract."

Willis wrote that Lincoln's presence would "kindle anew... a confidence that they who sleep in death on the battlefield are not forgotten."

"The world," Lincoln said, "can never forget what they did here."

We here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain."

The address became a classic. But, Elsendath says, Willis and his associates came close to missing the historic bus. In September they asked Edward Everett to deliver the oration. Lincoln's speaking role was the result of an afterthought.

"Apparently the idea of asking Mr. Lincoln to speak did not occur to the committee until some time later," Elsendath says. "His invitation to be a speaker was not put in the mails until November 2—only 17 days before the event."

Fish Commission Bans Nylon Nets

Harrisburg, Oct. 27 (AP)—The state Fish Commission is banning the use of nylon netting by commercial fishermen to stop what it termed the threatened depletion of Lake Erie fish.

The commission's ban, effective November 1, is on the use of nylon in taking such fish as bluepike, perch and herring. At the same time regulations were announced on the larger mesh nets used in the production of whitefish.

The commission explained that the nylon nets have many times the fish capacity of the linen and cotton nets.

It described the nylon ban as its first step in a fight to halt the depletion of fish resources on the Great Lakes.

TITO PROMISES "FIGHT TO END" AGAINST USSR

By ALEX SINGLETON

Belgrade, Oct. 27 (AP)—Marshal Tito last night promised to "fight enduringly" against Russian attempts to dominate Yugoslavia.

"We know," said Tito, "that in this struggle we are fighting for a great, just cause that will have tremendous historical significance for the future and that this is the true, correct relationship among the socialist states."

Tito sounded this serious note after a day in which a Moscow newspaper accused him of lavishing diamonds on an "American spy," named as the Yugoslav-born Metropolitan Opera Soprano Zinka Kunc Milanov.

We Shall Fight

The singer, interviewed over the telephone, said the story in the Moscow Literary Gazette was "just silly."

Tito pledged continued opposition to the Kremlin's present policy in a speech to a visiting group of Italians who had fought alongside his partisans during the last war. He declared:

"We shall fight—and we shall fight enduringly—to prevent Yugoslavia's subjugation by Russia."

Russia's leaders, said Tito, "are following a policy of unconditional subjugation of small Socialist countries by a big Socialist country."

Tito's Views

This Tito termed a breach in the development of relations between Socialist partners.

The Yugoslav leader conceded that "Socialism in the Soviet Union will not fail" because of the Yugoslav fight against the Kremlin policy.

Socialism, Tito said, "is a reality in the Soviet Union—we know that. But we also know that today the leader of the U.S.S.R. do not have the right point of view on the further development of Socialism in other countries of the world."

Bitter Personal Attack

Earlier today the Literary Gazette linked Tito's name with that of Opera Star Milanov in the bitterest personal attack to date on the Kremlin's chief Yugoslav opponent. Milanov laughed about the story.

Mme. Milanov, as she is known to the American musical public, is the wife of Maj. Gen. Ljubomir Ilich, director of a project to build a new city of Belgrade where the Danube and Sava rivers meet. They were married in 1947 at the Yugoslav embassy in Washington, D. C.

Milanov made her debut at New York's Metropolitan opera in 1937, and until her marriage was a leading soprano in Italian operas there.

Littlestown

Littlestown—Littlestown Brownie Girl Scout Troops No. 16 and 34 entertained the newly-organized troop, Mrs. Leonard Kerchner, leader, and the troop committee members on Tuesday evening in the fire hall. The program opened with a grand march with Mrs. Arline Krumrine, pianist. Prizes were awarded for the following costumes: Prettiest, Peggy Miller; ugliest, Donna Reaver; most original, Geraldine Roberts; and the funniest, Ruby Myers. Serving as judges were: Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, and Mrs. Ruth Sentz. Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, pres. of the committee, welcomed the new troop members and the two new troop committee members, Mrs. Arline Krumrine and Mrs. Ruth Sentz. She also said that the five girls who "fly-up" in the near future were in charge of the program. They are: Eleanor Harner, Frances Miller, Peggy Miller, Bette Reaver and Geraldine Roberts. Bette Reaver was the announcer for the program which follows: Poem, "Halloween Party," Frances Miller; story, "Ghost of Lonely Halloween," Geraldine Roberts; poem, "Halloween," Eleanor Harner; riddles, Geraldine Roberts; playlet, "The Black Cat," Peggy Miller was the mother and the various sound imitations were given by all the Brownies. Prizes were given to all by Bette Reaver, who was dressed as a witch. All participated in the games and refreshments were served. All participated in the games and refreshments were served. It was announced at the party that the Brownies will also attend the worship service on Sunday at 10:30 a. m. in St. Paul's Lutheran church in uniform. The Brownies will also have a Girl Scout week display in one of the show windows of J. Arthur Boyd, East King street.

More than 100 were present on Tuesday evening in the social hall of St. Paul's Lutheran church at a Halloween party sponsored by the Christian Endeavor society for the members of the society and the primary and adult departments of the Sunday school. Games were enjoyed by the younger children and numerous prizes were awarded.

A scavenger hunt was enjoyed by the older group. Prizes for the following costumes were awarded: Prettiest, Dawn Pettyjohn; ugliest, Dolores Rae Reinhold; and most original, Tony Maitland. Refreshments were served by the following committee: Ruth Staub, chairman; Jean Bish, Loyse Waltman, Lydia Sentz and Mrs. Maynard Barnhart. Games were planned by a committee consisting of Jean Wolfe, chairman; Harriet Badders, Darla Lemmon, and Dawn Pettyjohn. The hall was decorated with streamers by Albert Stock, Richard A. Little, Jr., Robert DeGroff and Maynard S. Barnhart, Jr. Miss Lydia Sentz was the fortune teller.

Thirty-four children from the Centenary Methodist Sunday school held their Halloween parties on Monday evening at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Furlow, near town; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crist, Hanover; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burr, near town. Halloween games were enjoyed and numerous prizes were awarded for contests. Refreshments were served.

Following a short business meeting in charge of the vice president, Mrs. Grace Harner, a Halloween party was enjoyed by the members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Centenary Methodist church, Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Crist, Centennial avenue, Hanover. Nine members were in attendance. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, November 15, at the home of Mrs. Rose Shadle, East King street, Littlestown.

Because of conflicting activities in the community, the meeting of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce, previously announced for Wednesday evening was not held. The next meeting of the body has been announced for Wednesday, November 23, at 8 p. m. in the fire hall.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Lutheran church, Two Taverns, will hold a covered dish social in the form of a Halloween party for all the members and their families, Monday, Oct. 31, in the social hall. Each member is asked to bring a covered dish. There will be games, contests and prizes. The committee urges as many as possible to come in costume.

Friday is the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, when the intention of the mass in St. Aloysius Catholic church is for the temporal and spiritual welfare of the members of the parish.

To Plead Guilty To Embezzlement

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 27 (AP)—Counsel for George L. Ryan, 44, charged with embezzling approximately $20,000 from the Penanthra Federal Credit Union at Mount Carmel, Pa., says Ryan will plead guilty.

Attorney Joseph Gallagher of Scranton told federal court here yesterday he will have Ryan, a former treasurer of Penanthra, enter a formal guilty plea sometime next week.

Ryan is in jail in default of $5,000 bail after waiving indictment on arraignment before U. S. Judge John W. Murphy. He was arrested October 14 in Philadelphia on a federal warrant.

Joseph P. Brennan, first assistant

U. S. attorney, told Judge Murphy the case against Ryan will be disposed of on a criminal information to which Ryan "intends to plead guilty." The Penanthra Credit Union is composed of employees of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. Ryan at one time was employed by the PP&L.
